

STOP PRESS.

During the week we have been endeavouring to obtain the services of a first-class scrum-half. The negotiations reached a further stage on Thursday, when we agreed with the club concerned for the player's transfer. However, it will still be necessary to obtain the player's sanction and we are at present in communication with him at his home in Wales.

NEW CARDIFF RUGBY CLUB.

The Management Committee of the Rugby Football League, over which Mr. J. W. Wood (Bramley) presided at the Victoria Hotel, Manchester, received a deputation from the new Cardiff Club consisting of Ken Thomas and Ben Tucker, who outlined the formal application of the new Cardiff Club for membership of the Rugby Football League.

The committee were so impressed with the case put forward that they decided to call a special general meeting of the clubs for Wednesday, December 21st, at the Victoria Hotel, Manchester, when the clubs will decide upon the desirability or otherwise of admitting Cardiff to membership.
