OUR VISITORS. A FEW BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

FRANK McMILLAN, Captain, New South Wales. A brilliant full back; and a player who has accomplished a remarkable "come back". Age, 33 years; stands 5ft. 8in. and weighs 11st. 0lbs. Has a most comprehensive knowledge of the game. Played in all the Test games when our last team toured Australia, and in those games Jim Sullivan had nothing to give away. He toured this Country in 1929-30. An exceedingly popular player.

ALAN RIDLEY, wing three-quarter, New South Wales. Age, 22 years; weight, 13st. 4lbs.; height, 6ft. 1in. Toured in 1929-30, but was handicapped by injuries. A great scoring man, and a player who showed considerable improvement last season.

FRED GARDNER, wing three-quarter, New South Wales. Age, 23 years; weight 10st. 13lbs.; height, 5ft. 9ins. A brilliant attacker with a very effective side-step. Has great speed and a keen eye for an opening.

CLIFFORD PEARCE, centre three-quarter, New South Wales. Age, 25 years; weight 13st. 10lbs.; height, 5ft. 11in. Played for Australia last season. Good all-round player, noted for his determination. Is the type of a player who is likely to improve on the tour. A member of the famous sculling family.

FRANCIS DOONAR, stand-off half, Queensland. Age, 24 years; weight, 10st. 7lbs.; height, 5ft. 6½ins. First represented Queensland in 1930. Learned all his football at Ipswich. Is capable of rising to great attacking heights, and is always a sound defender.

VIVIAN THICKNESSE, half-back, New South Wales. Age, 22 years; weight, 10st. 8lbs.; height, 5ft. 10ins. Has had a wonderfully meteoric career since coming over to the League game from the Rugby Union. Possesses exceptional speed and can side-step either way. Is expected to be one of the successes of the tour.

PETER MADSEN, front row forward, Queensland. Age, 29 years; weight, 14st. 7lbs.; height, 6ft. Toured in 1929-30 and played against England in Australia last year. He is considered the finest hooking forward in the world.

SIDNEY PEARCE, second row forward, New South Wales. Age, 22 years; weight, 15st. 5lbs.; height, 5ft. 11ins. Played for Australia last season. Fine player in all departments of the game. Is resourceful in opening up the game to suit his backs.

FRANCIS O'CONNOR, second row forward, New South Wales. Age, 24 years; weight, 14st.; height, 6ft. Represented Australia last season. Versatile type, good in both tight and open play. A great rucker and often blends with his backs.

HENRY THOS. DENNY, second row forward, Queensland. Age, 32 years; weight, 13st. 7lbs.; height, 5ft. 10½ins. Last year was his first season in Queensland representative football. Is probably one of the most improved forwards in the game.

WALTER JOSEPH PRIGG, back forward, New South Wales. Age, 24 years; weight, 13st.; height, 5ft. 11ins. Toured here in 1929-30, and played for Australia last season. A brilliant loose forward and a keen spoiler when it comes to defence.

VICTOR HEY, five-eighths, Sydney Western Suburbs, was one of the last players selected to make the tour, but is certainly not the least interesting. He is only 20 years of age, weighs 11st. 11lbs., and stands 5ft. 8½ins. Has a great future to look forward to.

Oldham v. Australia

Saturday, Sept. 9th, 1933.

Kick-off 3-30 p.m.

CLUB CHAT.

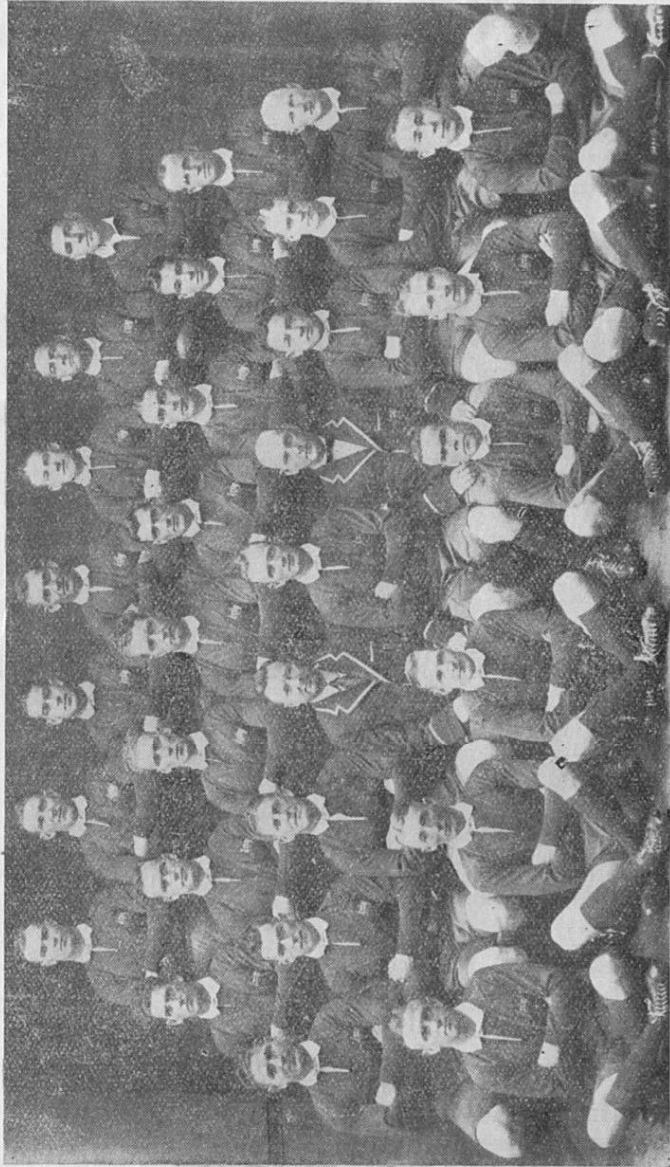

Welcome! To-day we again have the sincere pleasure of welcoming The Australians. to our ground at Watersheddings, our friends from "down under," in other words—The Australians. How glad we are at the chance of once again having a tussle with our Australian friends. We have been looking forward to this fixture, and have done a lot of studying and worrying as to the best means of making our friends from overseas enjoy their visit to Oldham. Our old friend Mr. Harry Sunderland, one of the joint managers, is by no means a stranger to our town, and no doubt he will already have notified his co-manager, Mr. Wally Webb, of the many friends he has met here, all of whom will be quite ready to give a real cordial welcome. We sincerely hope that fine weather may favour the game, and that the managers, along with Mr. McMillan, the captain, and the whole of the tourists may have a real good time amongst us. All our officials join in expressing the wish that the tourists may leave us with nothing but the most pleasant memories of a happy time spent in our midst.

The Joint Managers. The Kangaroos are happy in having two such fine sportsmen as Messrs. Sunderland and Webb as their managers. Mr. Harry Sunderland is known everywhere Rugby League football is played, either Australia, New Zealand or England. In the last twenty years he has rendered universal service to Rugby League football. Harry visited the Olympic Games and World's Recreation Congress in California last year and toured to New York and Chicago to study America's gridiron game for new tactics in team preparations. This is his fifth trip to England. Mr. Wally Webb if less known in the football world than his co-manager, is nevertheless a very fine capable sportsman. He was one of the players in Sydney and was for many years secretary of the Eastern Suburbs Club. Wally Webb played football with the fathers of some of the present tourists. He is a fine cricketer and has put up some fine performances for his club—the Glamis. He is also associated with the turf, and his horses, Garu and Greyfast, have left their names amongst famous winners on the Australian tracks.

Birthdays In England. As will be seen from the tabulated list of players, there are several members of the team who will experience the pleasure of having a birthday in England. Amongst those will be Norman Potter, the Kangaroo's trainer, who will add another year to his record on October 11th. It will be recalled that Norman Potter played here with the 1921 Kangaroos and also played in all the Tests the only time Australia won the Ashes in Australia. Mr. Harry Sunderland will also have a birthday on November 23rd. He will also have an anniversary of another kind on November 2nd, for on that date it will be four years since that motor car crashed into him just as he was alighting from a charabanc to enter the Union Club for dinner after our last game with the Australians. That affair put quite a damper on the function. Happily, however, Mr. Sunderland's wonderful constitution stood the smash remarkably well, and most probably he will pay another visit to-day to our Royal Infirmary, where, since that accident, the greatest friendship exists between the staff and Mr. Sunderland.

Beware of Pickpockets. With so many of the light fingered fraternity knocking about just now, it will be as well if our members and visiting friends keep a safeguard over their pockets or the contents therein may be "flitting." When the first "All Blacks" paid us a visit on Saturday, November 23rd, 1907, we remember having a number of poster-slips on the occasion of the visit of the "All Blacks," giving various instructions to visitors. The billposter, however, after warming his hands (?) in the Pavilion, must have got slightly mixed, for over one turnstile he had posted two slips as follows:—

two ships as follows:—

BEWARE OF PICKPOCKETS! HAVE YOUR MONEY READY.

We understand that at a meeting of the Lancashire pickpockets, held shortly afterwards, a special resolution of thanks was passed to the bill-poster, and it has been stated that they also sent him a neat little parcel containing a few empty purses and wallets, and two or three brass watch chains!

Have They Any Jugglers? Here is an extract from our Programme on the occasion of the visit of the 1921 team when Blinkhorn and Horder played such a great game at Watersheddings on November 26th:—Wonder if the present Tourists have any jugglers with them as one of the previous teams had. It was suggested that one of their threequarter backs was quite a marvellous fellow who "could pass the ball right round his back." This led our "Office Boy," who at that time was in charge of our Programme, to break out as follows:—

Said the Australians: "Have you seen our crack?

He can pass the ball right round his back."

But soon someone told 'em, "They can do that at Oldham,

If they couldn't they'd soon get the sack!"

What's The Time? One of the most versatile of the present touring team is Frank Curran. If you want to know the time—ask Frank Curran. Any of his colleagues will tell you that he's just as good as an entertainer at the piano as he is on point duty in Sydney, where he is a policeman. Exceedingly popular with his team-mates, Curran played himself into the touring team by sheer ability in the recent State games—and he may play himself into the Tests, too. He has yet to represent Australia. Aged 23, he weighs 14st. and stands 6ft. He started his football with the country club, Lismore, but on joining the police force, found a place in the famous South Sydney team.

Our Good Start. We made a fine start of our programme when we severely trounced Broughton Rangers in the first game of the season. We took some little time to settle down, and for the first ten minutes it looked as though the Rangers would make us go every inch in order to win; but after the first quarter had passed and the Broughton defence had been pierced everything was plain sailing so far as the victory harbour was concerned. One does not expect too great a display in an opening game, but our display was, on the whole, very pleasing. There were certainly points which can be polished up a trifle, but all things considered it was a very pleasing display. Our two new forwards, Sadler and Hodgson, appeared to great advantage, especially the former, and there is no reason why our pack so ably led by "Bill" Thomas should not prove to be one of the best in the League this season. We followed up our Broughton victory with another fine performance at Rochdale, and, in a game which was splendidly contested, we were always looking like a winning team. Lack of space forbids making any lengthy reference to the game, but we may again say that we are very well pleased with the excellent start we have made. May the lads keep it up to-day and for a long time to come.

What About To-day? Without in any way speaking disparagingly of the teams which have already gone under to the "Kangaroos" from "down under," we fancy that our visitors of to-day will find our lads just a trifle tougher nut to crack than those they have previously come across since they opened their programme. We have a very proud record against our oversea rivals, and the last team here was the first one we had failed to beat, although we only beat the 1921-2 team at the second attempt. If only we can have as good a game as we had in our last encounter with the Australians four years ago, we shall be very, very pleased. We still remember the long rousing cheers which greeted both teams at the close of the game. Such enthusiasm is very rarely seen on any ground, and that game did our code any amount of good. Well, we went under, good losers to brilliant winners. On this occasion our players have an idea that they can just about wipe out that defeat. Of course the Kangaroos will be very keen on maintaining an unbeaten record like ourselves. We look like witnessing a fine game.

Thanks! We desire to gratefully acknowledge with thanks the kindness of the "News Chronicle" and Messrs. Hirst, Kidd and Rennie, Ltd., of the "Green Final," for the loan of the various blocks and caricatures used in this programme.
