CLUB NOTES

Although we are still labouring under the handicap of having three or four of our best players on the injured list, there are indications of a return to the delightful form of last season. The signing on of Lou Houghton has given a much needed strengthening to the pack, and with Spillane and Davies striking some of their best form behind, the side was able to give a really creditable display at Parkside and, viewed in some lights, we were perhaps unfortunate to leave both points behind.

Our defence was badly at fault in conceding the first two Hunslet tries, while the third was due to a really unfortunate circumstance, for the Hunslet player who scored was 20 or 30 yards offside and was apparently put on-side as the ball, kicked by Walkington, grazed Oakes before it reached him. Still this circumstance did not undo the large amount of good football shown by our boys, and we do not anticipate a recurrence of the unhappy happenings of early September.

With us to-day are popular visitors in Oldham. We need hardly remind our supporters that the two games with the Watersheddings team last season were among the pleasantest of the whole campaign, and although we only got one of the four points at stake—and that was at Oldham—we had the satisfaction of contributing a just share to the many attractive phases. We trust that to-day's game will be just as pleasant and entertaining.

Next Saturday, we shall house at Lawkholme the Yorkshire-Cumberland Amateur County Match, and two very attractive teams will be on view. May we appeal to our followers to support the fixture in as generous a measure as they can. We have had this fixture before and the return has been none too good, though in both cases the weather was unfavourable. A lot has been written of late about the enthusiasm in the Keighley area, and there is a chance a week hence to prove that it is amply justified. The best amateur talent in both counties will be on view, and an attractive game is assured. Cumberland have won the professional championship and Yorkshire may be relied upon to do their utmost to prevent them bringing off the "double."

News of our injured players is very assuring. Pascoe is making capital progress and Watson too is almost fit. Dixon's absence is due to an injured knee, and we do not anticipate his absence much longer.
