OFFICIAL NOTES.

Last week-end furnished a break in Cup-tie strife. It also furnished a break in the weather. Such a one as must have well nigh broken the hearts of many club officials who, between 2-30 and 3-30 p.m., saw hopes of good 'gates' washed away and blown to 'smithereens' in the February gale. We, at Fartown, were one of the sufferers. We had looked forward to the visit of Castleford as likely to produce a capital game and a 'gate' approaching £350.

That we took £78 on such an afternoon speaks well for the enthusiasm of many of our followers. Yet it also serves to show how much the gale lost us. However, 'every cloud has a silver lining.' This afternoon may see the weather in kinder mood, in which case we shall see our ground presenting a striking contrast to that of a week ago.

—JAMES F. HAIGH, Proprietor.—

With Oldham here as our opponents in the Second Round of the Rugby League Cup, what more is wanted than a fine afternoon to ensure our Fartown Ground housing the biggest 'gate' of our season, and probably the biggest, too, in this second round.

A fortnight ago, at Headingley, one of the Leeds officials, in referring to the magnificent attendance that afternoon, suggested that the days of £1,900 'gates' were over at Fartown. It is true we have not approached that figure for many a day past, but who knows, even now, we may come within reasonable distance of it.

Our Leeds friend must not overlook the fact that of the 31,000 present at Headingley, there were a good many thousand who hailed from Huddersfield or who had Huddersfield sympathies.

If to-day's 'gate' does reach the four figure mark we shall give our Oldham friends credit for playing their part. To what extent this has been brought about will be obvious ere the turnstiles have finished 'clicking.' It will be apparent the moment the Watersheddings team step on the field.

No one, more than we at Fartown, has noted with greater pleasure the revival in the playing fortunes of Oldham during the last month or two. We had a good word for them on the first Saturday in January, when we were narrowly beaten by 6 points to 5.
Our old Lancashire rivals caught us napping that day, during which time (in the first '40') they scored two tries without reply. Then they kept us down to 5 points after the interval and won the game on their merits.

To-day we are hoping to show our form was all wrong in the League encounter. It isn't likely that we shall present Oldham with such a 'snap' try as was the case in the first minute or so in the game referred to. 'You never can tell,' yet it isn't likely. One thing gives us pleasure in speculating upon to-day's big event. There seems every probability that both teams will be at full strength.

From our own camp comes the announcement (as we go to Press) that Fiddes will be available again. The injury sustained by him at Dewsbury, on February 2nd, has since kept him out of the team for three matches, a big misfortune for the player himself, and for our club. Mills stood his match test very well against Castleford last week-end, and to-day he is expected to be at his best physically. Richards, Scourfield and Towill, all suffering from minor injuries sustained at Featherstone, are reported fit again. The only players at present on the injured list are Bucci and Berry (Reserves) and Spencer, of the first team. Bucci sustained a knee injury in the Reserve team match at Castleford, last week-end, and unfortunately, he is likely to be out of the game for a few weeks.

We are hoping Oldham will find themselves in an equally favourable position, in which case this afternoon's big event is likely to be a real trial of strength. Our visitors beat St. Helens, at Watersheddings, in the first round, by 5 points to nil, after a 'terrific struggle,' to quote from the Oldham programme for last week's match with Hull Kingston.

We respectfully beg to differ with the writer of the Oldham programme just referred to, when he goes on to say that 'even though Huddersfield managed to beat Leeds at Headingley (4-3) there was nothing very convincing about that.' As we were not present at Watersheddings on the occasion of the St. Helens Cup-tie we will not make any comment upon the match, except to suggest that, with the final score only 5 points to nil in Oldham's favour, they might have had to fight even harder still for victory had the match been played at Knowsley Road.

Don't think we are hurt or bent upon getting in a quiet little 'dig' in return. We take other folk's opinion all in good part, and especially when coming from Oldham. Space will not permit a recital of the many great games in League and in Cup, which have taken place between Oldham and ourselves during the last 30 or more years. These events have been done full justice in our local Press during the last few days, and, in the reading, have recalled many happy times. Sometimes the smile of victory has been on one side, sometimes on the other. Win or lose, however, nothing has taken place during the passing of the years to 'break in' upon the good fellowship and sporting characteristics which have been synonymous terms with the names of Oldham and Huddersfield.

Here's wishing another great game to-day, and may the winner on this occasion be Huddersfield.

THE CASTLEFORD MATCH.

Reference has already been made to the bad weather associated with the visit to Fartown of the 'Glass-blowers.' Considering the difficulties under which the game was played, we can congratulate both teams upon doing their best to rise above the handicap. themselves of the strong breeze, and we had to battle with wind and rain, it was only to be expected we should be behind at half-time. What many folks did not expect was that the adverse score at the end of the first '40', would be three points only.

In the early stages of the game our visitors were all over us, territorially, and they were playing good football too. Our line had several narrow escapes ere it fell to a smart round of passing which led to a try, scored by young Cuniffe. The position was too far out for conversion. Another try ought to have been made, but Davies, of Castleford, pushed Markham, from behind; with the ball over our line, and instead of a try resulting, the referee, who was on the spot and witnessed the incident, rightly ruled 'no try.' Mid-way in the first half our forwards commenced to beat Castleford for possession, and also used their feet in the open. And so, instead of the first half resolving itself into one long '40' minutes of 'enemy' attacks, we were actually threatening the visitors' line on more than one occasion. When the interval arrived with the score unaltered we were well satisfied.

The game re-commenced on surprising lines. Instead of our gaining a quick footing in our opponents' half, we found ourselves having to tackle in deadly earnest, as Atkinson and his colleagues tried to force a passage over our line. Our forwards rendered great service at this stage, and there was no shirking when there was a call for 'smothering' the ball. And so, eventually, a timely clearing kick relieved the danger, and then the game commenced to run more on anticipated lines.

The wind was still a great factor, but Castleford's disadvantage was lessened now that the driving rain was bating. Still, although we were in full possession of territorial advantage there seemed little signs of our gaining a much needed try. This was how matters stood when Castleford were penalised inside their '25,' for Bowkett to land a good goal. This success acted as a tonic to Fartown endeavours, and at last, from a rush which took the ball over the Castleford line, Barrow gained a try. The goal kick was unsuccessful, but we were now in front by 2 points, a margin which suggested a winning lead. This turned out to be the case, and in the end we gained two valuable League points, and also beat Castleford at the fourth time of asking. We congratulate our players upon the result. The players drafted into our side rendered excellent service. Bowkett at full-back was very reliable in everything he was called upon to do. Matthews proved a 'live wire' at outside half, and along with 'Dai' Davies was responsible for several clever break aways. Barrow watched Atkinson to the extent that the visiting International Centre was given little scope for crashing through. Our forwards stuck to their job in great style, and like several

OUR LEAGUE POSITION.

While the two points were very acceptable, they were not sufficient to make up previous ground lost in recent weeks. We are still out of the 'first four.' On the other hand, the success against Castleford gives us a firmer hold upon a position among the top seven Yorkshire Clubs in the League. At the moment our position in this respect is very healthy, but we must leave nothing to chance. Huddersfield must be one of the top seven Yorkshire Clubs, whatever happens in regard to the 'first four.'

Huddersfield Examiner

YOU, a lover of sport, want a quick, accurate service of sporting news. You want news of national and international events, and you also want a comprehensive survey of local sport day by day.

The "Examiner" gives you this service every evening, and Saturday's Football Final (rd.) is first with descriptive details of the fate of the local teams during the afternoon.
