

The advent of Cox and Greenall is welcome. They will find first team football much harder than A team, but if they are made of the right stuff, they can stick it.

FUTURE DATES.

Wigan on Good Friday. There will be a train leaving Thatto Heath at 2-20, and St. Helens at 2-27. Arrive at Wigan at 2-50. Leave Wigan at 5-30. That's easy enough.

Next Saturday the "A" team are at home to Barrow, and after the match the Saints Dance at the Town Hall will be the big attraction. Wally Moss will be there with his Band.

Next Home Match :

PROGRAMME

Published by the St. Helens Rugby Football Club Ltd.

Down one minute, but they are up the next. The Saints have played this season as they did in the days before Ellaby and Fairclough, George Lewis and Mercer, appeared on the scene. They used to go all to pieces one week and astonish everyone the next.

Then they reached their zenith and for several years were the biggest attraction in the game.

Will next season see the Saints climbing again. Good judges are forecasting that the Saints are the coming team. There is plenty of talent. What is needed is the combination to take advantage of it. Every man has been a trier, but the team has often failed through not playing to moves worked out in practice.
