NOTES AND COMMENTS

We have pleasure in welcoming Oldham to our ground to-day. Last year we were successful against them in Cup and League games here, although we took a hiding on Easter Monday at the Watersheddings. This season they have been going great guns and now lie second in the League table. Our side in comparison are not doing so well, due mainly to a series of injuries which has weakened the side almost from the beginning of the season. It was pleasant to see Eppie Gibson and John Tembey back in harness last week in the “A” team.

The side were rather unlucky at Hull K. R. last week when they went down by a point. This I believe is only the third time we have lost to this side, all the defeats of course being at Craven Park.

Supporters of the Club are reminded that tickets for the Cup Final at Wembley next May 13th have been on sale for several months at League Headquarters, 180, Chapeltown Road, Leeds 7. Some tickets at all prices i.e. 25s.; 15s.; 12s. 6d.; 7s. 6d. and ground tickets at 3/- are still available, but in a few weeks time will be in very short supply. If you do not wish to be disappointed order your tickets now. Send a stamped addressed envelope with your application. Payment can be made at any time before 1st January next.
