THE N.Z. TOURISTS

Our next home game is with the New Zealand side. Their team-work in their early matches left too many holes in defence, but now they have found answers to many of their troubles they are doing better.

Their game with Lancashire showed how difficult they are to stop when they really get going. But for a storming penalty goal for Lancashire near the end of the game the Tourists would probably have won.

The New Zealanders' choice for players is from the following players, so when their team is announced in a fortnight's time you will be able to judge the calibre of the side that is to face us. Tourist teams usually pay us the compliment of fielding their strongest team against us.
