THE RUGBY FOOTBALL LEAGUE

The Management Committee of the Northern Rugby Football League wish to make it known to spectators attending matches on this ground that the Home Club is held responsible for the actions of its spectators. Acts of hooliganism and assaults on officials appointed to control the game will not be tolerated. Any offences could lead to disciplinary action being taken against the Home Club and this action could include the imposition of a fine, or in a serious case, the closing of the ground.

NOTES

On the instruction of the Management Committee of the Northern Rugby League, the above notice must appear in this and the next two issues of the Town Club programme, and no doubt you will have seen it exhibited at the entrance where you came into the ground, again on their instruction. It is to say the least a pity, that due to the exuberance tinged with a little silliness of the very odd supporter, the good name of this Club should be besmirched, and it is to be hoped that this embarrassment which casts its shadow over Directors, Officials and supporters alike, will not come our way again.

You will probably remember how last winter we had a series of games on the television on Sunday afternoons, if you do not know about them, let me tell you that they were a very good feature, and were much talked about by the many that I know who made it a Sunday afternoon habit. It pleases one to be able to report that this series is to be conducted again this year, when you will be able to see thirty-five minutes of Rugby League football from five past two until twenty to three, and the dates are here that you may keep them for reference. You are particularly asked to keep them, as they may not appear here again.

Oct. 25—At Swinton. Lancashire Under-19 Semi-final.

Nov. 1—At Odsal Stadium. Yorkshire Under-19 Semi-final.

8—At St. Helens. Lancashire Under-19 Final.

15—At Headingley. Yorkshire Under-17 Semi-final.

29—At Castleford. Yorkshire Under-19 Final.

Dec. 6—At Odsal Stadium. Yorkshire Under-17 Final.

13—At Blackpool. Lancashire Under-17 Final.

20—At Headingley. Under-19 County Final.

27—At Castleford. Under-17 Inter-County Final.

You never get a better show anywhere or at any time than you get from the juniors, and it will be well worth while to see these games if they are anything like last year's.

Today we welcome Oldham, sorry to say without a Cumbrian in their side. They have had some of their best ever from this county, three springing readily to mind being Joe Ferguson, Tom Fletcher and Jimmy Parkinson. The two first-mentioned have passed on, Jimmy we are happy to report, is still residing in Oldham, and very often pays us a call at Derwent Park. The Oldham side today is dotted with stars, Dyson (ex-Huddersfield), Price (Welsh international), Pycroft (ex-Leeds), McIntyre (international), Tug. Wilson, Major (once with Widnes), Peter Smethurst, and Parker all are big names in the game. We introduce Syd Lowdon to senior football for the first time this season, and young forwards who have been making their mark in "A" team games are given due reward by being promoted.
