OLD FRIENDS, OLD FOES

Visit of Oldham will recall memories of a more illustrious past.

To the more mature of our supporters today's visit of Oldham will revive many memories of the memorable contests of the past and we are hoping that the high reputation of these engagements will attract our best gate of the season.

Oldham, now captained and coached by Frank Dyson, the former Huddersfield full back, after a poor season in the 1962-63 dropped into the second division, but they made such a rapid recovery that they would now have been back in the first division had not the championship system been switched to its original form.

They began the present season by winning six games in succession. Then they suffered a home defeat by Whitehaven who had not previously won a match, since when they have been inconsistent, losing four of their eight subsequent matches.

But they command our respect for all that and we do not underestimate the task before us. We prefer to lose a thriller than win a match of no spectacular merit.

BILLY SMITH PASSES ON

Billy Smith, one of our life members in his 80th year, has passed on. He was connected with our club for over 60 years as a first team trainer and then assistant trainer and he toured France with Gus Risman and the "Red Devils" just prior to World War II. He also was the trainer to the English team against Australia at Bradford. He was employed up to his 78th year, showing patrons and visiting directors to their seats.

Says his friend, G. E. Coppock "He was a great little gentleman and a wonderful sportsman."

HARRY SUNDERLAND MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Rugby League Writer's Association have purchased from a Leeds firm of jewellers a silver Cup which has been suitably inscribed and will be known as "The Harry Sunderland Memorial Trophy."

This they will award to the player whom members of the R.L.W.A. consider to be the best in the League Championship Final.

The winner will hold the Cup for one year and his name will be inscribed on the trophy. In addition he will receive a personal gift.

Writing from Toorak, Vicotia, Australia, Sydney Sunderland, son of the former Australian team manager, broadcaster and journalist, says:

"My family and I are sincerely touched by this generous and fine gesture to perpetuate my father's name in respect to the game which meant so much to him. I know that there is nothing which could have pleased him more than such a practical demonstration of the affection and regard in which he was held by his colleagues."

BRIAN SPARKS

This week's photograph personality is our Welsh International forward Brian Sparks. "Sparky" has only been with us a matter of eight weeks after a lay off from football, due to occupational circumstances for a period of three seasons. However in the short period with us he has "come back" and made his presence felt at the Willows in no uncertain manner. So much so that we have had a letter from Leigh fans this week, to compliment "Sparky" on his great display vying with Bev. Risman as the "Man of the Match."

By occupation Brian is a schoolmaster at a County School in South Wales. He is at present on an Advanced Course at a Stafford College.
