CLUB NOTES

This evening's game against our old friends and rivals from Oldham is the third at the Athletic Grounds within the past six days.

Unfortunately, the two previous encounters with Warrington and Wigan did not produce any of the points we desperately need to get away from the foot of the table. Against Warrington, it can be fairly said that Hornets were unlucky to lose. Many rate our form against the league leaders as the best of the season.

Therefore, it was something of anti-climax and a disappointment that we should receive such a hammering at the hands of Wigan on Tuesday night. The Hornets played pluckily enough but on the night they were plainly outclassed by a Wigan side which had a true Wembley look about it.

Hornets are not likely to find Oldham such a power-packed, speedy handful to-night. Nonetheless, it will require a tremendous team effort if two points are to be won.

After an indifferent spell following their Cup exit at Hunslet, Oldham appeared to regain their form in their highly merited win over Workington at Watersheddings on Monday night.

Over the years Oldham have been able to find forward stars. Their latest discovery is 17 year old farmer's boy, Bob Irving. Bob, spotted by coach Frank Dyson at Huddersfield, has been putting on some headline-catching displays in the last few weeks. His laconic comment to the cauliflower ears he has recently developed was "Well, I'm a rugby player now." We will be able to judge that to-night, "cauliflowers" or not.

The other three new signings Oldham have made this season are all from Wigan. South African fullback John Winton followed out-half Stan McLeod and centre Jim McCormack to Watersheddings only a few weeks ago. Already he has paid off a slice of the £2,500 fee involved by kicking quite a number of goals, including two vital ones which helped Oldham to beat Workington.

McLeod, of course, was in the Wigan team beaten at Wembley by Wakefield a couple of years ago, and McCormack made his debut for Oldham against the Hornets in the Charity Cup game at the beginning of the season and shortly afterwards won his Lancashire County cap.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

BUSY PERIOD

Due to the busy period before Easter with the glut of home games, the next Supporters' Club committee meeting will probably be put back until after the holidays. With so many calls on the officials and Bar Committee, it will be difficult to fit in the monthly meeting, and your Hon. Secretary will inform you when a date has been arranged.

The lottery draw will be held after the Easter Monday match with Barrow, so as to attract the maximum of members and give officials and their wives the "rest of the night" free.

This close season looks like being a very short one this time in view of the extra competition planned, but we are hoping in addition to our trip and dance to be able to announce other activities before the 1965-1966 season commences.

Our annual meeting, too, will have to be arranged, and details of this will be given later.

TEABAR

We are always glad of help in our ladies' tea bars, and if anyone would like to offer their services we should be grateful. Mention this to either your Hon. Secretary or Hon. Treasurer.

Now then, lads, if your wife won't allow you up to Hornets without her, here is a golden opportunity to please her — bring her along!!

SOCIAL CLUB AND WEEKLY POOL

The dismissal of our application for a social club licence brings new problems regarding the finances of the football club, one thing being certain—we must maintain and improve our weekly lottery which is the lifeblood of our club; without it and our band of workers, senior Rugby League in Rochdale would undoubtedly cease to exist. This evening we are earnestly appealing to each and every one of our supporters to come forward and help the club and rugby football by becoming a collector for our weekly effort. We have many, many supporters who bring in between 10 and 20 shillings each week, which all helps to build our pool. If you are a genuine supporter and would like to help (there are few who cannot collect 10/- each week) call round to the secretary's office following the match or hand your name and address in at one of the tea bars.

How to keep your clothes summer clean in winter

THE LADIES

In our last programme we handed out a bouquet to the Supporters Club ladies in our teabars. Do not let us forget Mrs. A. Walker, the wife of the Hornets chairman, and her helpers in the players' and officials teabar. Mrs. Walker was so busy on the Saturday night before the Sunday international baking for the teabar that she was unable to enjoy the dance, etc. On the Sunday these ladies had two seats of teams and officials to feed—and they, like Mr. Fletcher and her team of ladies, were worn out.

What would we do without this feminine backbone? They have saved the Hornets hundreds of pounds on the refreshment side in the past few years.

SUPPORTERS CLUB MIXED TRIP

We now have 31 names for the Supporters' Club mixed trip on Saturday, May 22nd. We shall be going to Blackpool for a "Slap-up" meal, and then we shall spend the night at the Leyton Institute for a first-class evening's entertainment. See Ken Allen tonight if you wish to go with our party. You will, of course, have to take the wife or girl friend. You cannot get away twice in a year, lads, on your own on an all-male trip!

This outing is one of our out-of-season activities planned to keep interest. Another one is our Carlton Dance on Friday, May 21st—the night before our trip. So we should have a good week-end to look forward to. You can always spend the Sunday in bed!
