WIGAN v OLDHAM

(Northern Rugby Football League)

SATURDAY, 28th AUGUST, 1965

KICK-OFF 3-0 p.m.

OFFICIAL NOTES: It is our pleasure to welcome our friends from Oldham, who come today with maximum points from victories over Warrington and Whitehaven. A familiar face missing from the Oldham party today, will be that of former Secretary, Bert Summerscales, who has retired after serving the Club for 40 years—15 years on the Committee, and the last 25 years as Secretary. His successor is former Leigh Assistant Secretary, John Stringer, we trust he will be very happy with them.

FRANK DYSON former Huddersfield and Oldham full-back, retired at the end of last season and is now the Oldham Coach. He has been replaced by John Winton, who was transferred from Wigan last March.

STAN McLEOD, another Wigan player, is now Captain of the Oldham team.

We have made a good start to the new season in winning all our three matches. Today we embark on a very tough programme of four matches in eight days. On Monday we play at Leigh (7-0 p.m.), on Wednesday at Liverpool (6-30 p.m.), and of course next Saturday we entertain the New Zealand Touring Team.

Stand Tickets for this match are available after the match today to the General Public. Normal league prices of admission will be charged.
