WELCOME TO ROCHDALE

The 'Hornets' visit Watersheddings this evening with some fine victories under their belts. They have already disposed of Whitehaven, Huddersfield and Warrington and they have held both St. Helens and Swinton to draws all at the Athletic Grounds, but they are still looking for their first away success.

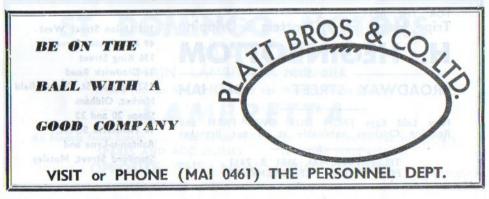

Rochdale, this season, are playing some exceptionally good rugby and are pleasing their fans with their recent displays.

I was an eye witness at their magnificent victory against Warrington last Friday and believe me they certainly played some fine football. At one stage of the game the 'Wires' were commanding a 10pt. to 2 lead, but in the second half Rochdale pulled out all the stops and finished up winners by 18 points to 10.

Chamberlain at full-back is at present deputising for the injured Pritchard. On the flanks both Mike Ratu and Tony Pratt are dangerous when given any room at all in which to work. Centres Mick Crocker and Malcolm Price are both favourites at the Athletic Grounds, turning in some sound forceful displays.

Graham Starkey takes over the No. 6 spot and Syd Miller will be Starkey's partner in tonight's line-up.

Ex-Blackpool prop Ken Payne, hooker Kevin Ashcroft, and Stan Owen form a very strong front row and behind them Ken Parr and Api Toga are both strong runners and need some holding. Owen's ball distribution comes in hand here. Last man down is ex-Oldham player Johnny Noon.

CLUB VIEWS

As I have outlined in the 'Welcome Rochdale' notes we are going to have our work cut out to contain a strong 'Hornets' side this evening. They beat us in the pre-season Charity match at Rochdale and will be hoping to prove that this victory was no fluke.

Our victory at Liverpool was seen by a very poor crowd of just 500 people. One cannot understand how a club like Liverpool manages to keep on its feet. However, there is a lot of enthusiasm at Knotty Ash, and they always try and play attractive football even when they are losing. On Saturday they could quite easily have given us a surprise. They got an early try by their winger Losh and then they gave us a hectic 20 minutes or so until their line broke when hooker Kevin Taylor went through from a play-the-ball. From this we got on top and in the end won by 19 points to 15. Their score was made a little more respectable with a glorious copybook try by their new centre Mort near the end.

Tom Warburton undoubtedly was the man of the match but he took a great deal of punishment, but he was still on the field at the end despite an injured shoulder.

The Christmas draw tickets will shortly be on sale and we are still seeking a few more young ladies who are willing to help us with the selling of these tickets on match days. If you are a young lady and interested in helping us in this respect please contact the Secretary at the Pavilion.

again before the public. A similar event was arranged in Paris for French players and was very much enjoyed by the crowd. There were loud cheers when a sixty-year-old scored a try. Actually, the handling in this particular match was very good indeed and I have no doubt that some of our old players can still demonstrate their handling ability although their legs might not be carrying them across the ground quite so quickly.

CONGRATULATIONS TOM!

We extend our congratulations to Tom Warburton on being voted 'man of the match' by B.B.C. viewers at our Floodlit game against Barrow last Tuesday week.

Tom received his £10-10-0 prize from B.B.C. commentator Eddie Waring at half-time in the Leeds v. Castleford match at Headingley last Tuesday.

Our players will have another chance to win this cash prize at the Widnes match on November 22nd.

Meet the Players - No. 7

GEOFFREY FLETCHER

After two Oldham officials had watched Geoff Fletcher at Bradford playing for Leigh at the beginning of last season he was signed by the Oldham Club.

Since then Geoff has had his ups and downs but at present he is playing some terrific football. After being 'got at' by several Oldham supporters during his lean spell last season, he is now a firm favourite with everyone at Watersheddings. Supporters and Players alike.

Geoff stands 6ft. 1ins. and weighs 15 stone. He is a pig farmer and lives in St. Helens.

Rugby comes first in Geoff's life although he is also a keen boxer. Geoff also professes to be a "fair" tennis player.

As an amateur, Geoff played for Lancashire and also England Under-19's. His present age is 22.
