FLOODLIGHT CUP

Tonight's game is the Preliminary Round of the Floodlight Competition, it will be played on a two legged basis with the return match at Oldham a fortnight tonight, 29th September, kick-off 7-30 p.m., the winners of this two-legged affair will meet Salford at Salford on 19th October, this match is to be televised.

Oldham, whom we wish to welcome this evening to the Athletic Grounds, have not made a bright start to the season, in fact have not won a match of any importance to date, they were knocked out of the Lancashire Cup in the first round by Swinton, and have only drawn one game in the League, this being 13 points each at home to Barrow in the opening league fixture, since then they have lost to Leeds and Wigan at Watersheddings, plus Swinton, Hunslet and Leeds on their opponents' grounds, under the guidance of our former player-coach Graham Starkey, we hope for a good, entertaining game this evening.

Neither side having selected their team makes writing the preview a little difficult at times, however Oldham have stated that they anticipate little change from the side that lost to Leeds on Saturday, the full back spot is uncertain at the moment with Martin Murphy, who represented Lancashire in this position last season, being preferred at out half, partnering Cliff Sayer to form the half backs, Mike Elliott will be on the right wing and on the left will be a rugby union trialist from the south of England having his second game for Oldham. Joe Collins and Trevor Buckley, two local signings, make up the three quarter line, Tug Wilson, a stalwart scrummager, is expected to be at open side prop forward, with either Dick Bonser or Frank Walker on the blind side, hooking will be Colin Bowden who is reported to have had a good game at Leeds and displaces the more renowned under-24 international Kevin Taylor. In the second row are likely to be Bob Irving who toured Australia in the summer of 1970 and Billy Churm the former Warrington loose forward, completing the side will be loose forward Ray Clark who has recently been playing on the wing.

Graham Starkey, after a season of injuries last year, appears to have hung up his boots to concentrate on the coaching of the Club.

Congratulations to Eddie Brown and also to Bob Welding, both of whom are in the Lancashire side to meet Cumberland at Workington this evening, this means, however, that we shall miss them for our own match. Coach Frank Myler is also having treatment for a hand injury, but is expected to be fit, in which event the backs will be unchanged from Saturday's grand win over Featherstone. The forwards, however, present something of a problem, with Brown and Welding out, room may be found for either or both Bob Sheffield and Alan Hodgkinson who both played for the 'A' team, which gave another good display in beating St. Helens by 23 points to 9 at St. Helens on Saturday.

A sign of the times and proof that the Hornets are improving was made clear on Monday when Leigh asked the Board to put fees on both Eddie Brown and Bob Welding. The Board replied that they were not interested in parting with anyone at this stage.

COMMITTEE MEETING

Will all members please note that there will be a meeting of the Supporters' Club General Committee at 11 a.m. on Sunday morning next. A good attendance is asked for, as several new ideas are likely to come up for discussion.

QUERY CORNER

A very hardy perennial has arisen again during the past few weeks, and a very good friend of mine found he had an expensive wrong answer when he said that "Hornets won the cup in green and black".

He was one of many who have raised this question, which is answered in full on page 51 of the history booklet. The quotation is:—

"1921 (September) — Hornets changed their colours from green and black to red, white and blue, because green and black 'did not come out of the weekly wash as nicely as they might have done'. The Hornets played in green and black again for the first time for 26 years on 13th December, 1947, against Wigan, using the colours occasionally when clashing with opponents".

Incidentally my beloved Fieldhead, where I spent many happy hours as a boy on the ground off Walker Street, also played in green and black shirts.

Send your queries to Bob Fletcher.

NEW-OLD FACES

It was very noticeable on Saturday last in the bar to see some very welcome faces of people we thought we had lost — people who have returned to see what it is all about — who thoroughly enjoyed the game.

As Joe Chamberlain has said of this season so far: "The crowd is with us, and that is a tremendous help".

Players are only like anyone else — they react to encouragement, and the very best of their ability is coming out on the field of play, to a great extent because they are getting a cheer and a shout to spur them on. Keep it up.

MEMBERSHIP

We have now topped the 400 mark with renewals of membership, and we shall be available again tonight at the club entrance to take your 10p. This "bargain" membership fee is the "best value in the Northern Union". Get your new card now for 12 months' membership and T.V. in the bar.

MATCH BALLS

If you would like to donate a match ball, the Hornets would be most grateful. This is a really practical way of helping the club. Please make your offer to the Hornets Secretary.

TEABAR

We managed to organise a teabar on the popular side in the open air last Saturday, and we are boasting a new sign on our main teabar.

You can get pies, crisps, tea, coffee, etc., from the ladies who provide this service, and your patronage is a great encouragement.

CHRISTMAS EFFORT

We shall be grateful to anyone willing to donate a prize for our annual Christmas effort. Please mention your offer to any committee man if you can help.
