Editorial Notes

(by S.M.)

Today we take on the present League leaders in what promises to be first-class entertainment, and I hope the gate reflects all our fans believe this to be a fact. Overleaf, the record provides us with past details which may belie our prospects, but there is no doubt that our fans can appreciate good rugby, whichever team provides it - so let's hear from you!

Our Match Mascot is ALAN HUGHES, aged 8 - Alby's son, and the first of our player's children to lead on the team this season. Once more, give him a day to remember!

There are still a few vacancies for Mascot, but several carried over from last season need to be confirmed: Kathy Nutter, Paul Lappin, David Gawne, Simon Rae and a few whose particulars have been mislaid during the close season. It is important to let me have the youngsters' ages and sizes - chest, waist and shoe; for shirt, shorts and stockings in Barrow colours - particularly if they have grown since last year. Please indicate, also, where "own kit" is available and does not need to be provided specially.

The programme number drawn at the St. Helens match was "198". This was claimed by HELEN ROBERTS, 15 Ainsworth Street, Dalton, who very kindly asked me to give the free match ticket to one of our pensioner fans. Her offer was much appreciated and has been carried out.

You will notice on the Competition Page that last week's total entries had increased to - 221. This has been made possible due to assistance from some of my friends, who have obtained entrants at work. Others are welcome to help in this way, and I am considering the possibility of increasing the value of the prize to the winner - suggestions will be welcomed.

Information has recently been received that one of our long-standing season-ticket holders - LAURIE CHORLTON, of Ramsden Street, Barrow, has been admitted to North Lonsdale Hospital for a period of up to three months. Some of his friends and others may not be aware of this, but I am sure we all wish him well, with a speedy recovery. That he will miss his attendance at Craven Park is obvious, and also away from home, as he seldom missed a game, but he has the consolation of the Hospital Broadcasting Service, which does a really marvellous job for such as Laurie.

I have read a recent "Evening Mail" report about a sub. during the last war requesting that anyone with information should pass it on now so that it is not carried to the grave. This also applies to many older supporters who, no doubt, have memories of B.R.F.C. going back to Little Park days. One 73 year-old pensioner has given me much material of this nature which will finally be placed in the Record Office, where almost nothing is held on this subject.

Several years ago I had an article published in the "Evening Mail" under the heading - "Stan Will Travel", but the response was minimal. However I hope to have a better result this time and am prepared to call where necessary. Those prepared to put their memories on paper will save my time and will ensure authenticity of the details. I constantly regret the fact that I failed to interview Tot Wallace before it was too late.

Club Notes

BARROW v OLDHAM

Sunday 7th October, 1984

Kick Off 2.30p.m.

Today we extend a very hearty welcome to our friends from Watersheddings - Directors, Officials, players and supporters - and congratulate them on their unbeaten League run to date, holding first place in the table. We must see what we can do to alter that this afternoon!

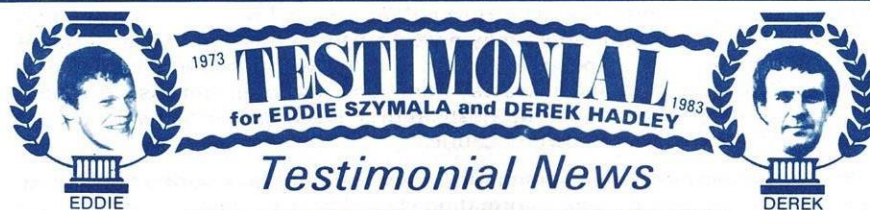

Three of their victims can hardly be called easy meat - Widnes, Leeds and Leigh - so they have not had as easy a start as ourselves, excluding Hull of course! As they have conceded only 36 points in five games, we shall have to produce something out of the bag in order to break down the current best defence in the league. However both teams can produce fast, entertaining open rugby, so we should be due for a feast today - regardless of the result.

Their defeat in the Lancashire Cup was a shock to all, and I expected them to do better than we did. In fact, I personally hoped for a repeat of the 1954 Final, with perhaps a similar result, but it was not to be.

To recall past league results at Craven Park since 1945/6, we are well ahead : (P) 35, (W) 24, (D) 1, (L) 10, Pts. 554 - 378 (+ 176). In all games over that period the results are against us : (P) 77, (W) 31, (D) 2, (L) 44, (887 - 1156).

Come what may, I am sure both the visiting supporters and our own will be given plenty of chances to applaud the efforts of the players in providing a match to be remembered.

Today's Match Sponsors are WARD GLASS, Emlyn Street - the adjudicator being T. SALTON, and the Match-Ball Sponsors, SHAW HADWIN (Luxury Coaches). We give both our grateful thanks for their support which is much appreciated.

Colts Comments (by Roly Parker)

Where are the six extra players we need to complete our Colts squad? That is what I believe we need to give us a good squad for the coming season but as ever there is a reluctance to join us and I still can't see why. It must be every local players dream to play for Barrow and when they are given the chance most of them spurn it.

Those 6 extra players, providing they were ready to train with us, would mean certainty over a team every week, would mean we were not scratching for players when two or three were called into the first or A team and would mean we could survive the odd injury. If you are one of the magical six we need get to Rating Lane on a Tuesday or Thursday and take advantage of being part of Barrow R.F.C.

So far we have only played three games, Huddersfield and Bramley cancelled their matches against us, and we have won two. In the one we lost, against St. Helens, we were level at half time so our start has not been bad. We have six chosen for the Colts County Squad so we have a fair chance of being represented when the team is picked although when you realise the calibre of some of the players in the Squad you will realise the enormity of the task they face. Sean Edwards, he played for Wigan at Wembley. Sean Allen, he played for St. Helens in their recent victory over Barrow plus Keith Holden, Mick Ford and several other fine players.

I'll finish by appealing for those six players we want. It's the finest Under 19 rugby available and if you really want to progress in the game show us you are not afraid of the challenge of hard training and competitive rugby. It's the only reason I can think of for you not joining us.

Amateur Scene (by Paddy McAteer)

The Amateur game has made yet another major break through with two teams entering a top professional competition. The Yorkshire Senior Cup which is for "A" teams have invited two Amateur sides in Redhill and Meworth. BARLA Chairman Ray Oldfield is delighted with the news and hopes that entry into the Rugby League Challenge is not too far away.

Four members of last seasons highly successful Youth Tour down under have been rewarded with major awards for the Malbros Shooting Stars in conjunction with the "Open Rugby". Garry Divorty was the top player and receives £250, while monthly award winners were Deryk Fox of Featherstone, Gary Schofield of Hull and Andy Rippon of Crossfield.

The BARLA Handbook is now available packed into nearly 400 pages are many fine action pictures and articles. One main feature is the Historic Maori tour to this country and a feature on top referee Billy Thompson. Also included is an update on the Constitution and bye-laws made at this years BARLA general meeting.

Roose Under 19s will take the place of Millom in the Cumbria Youth Cup. Millom the holders were at the time undecided as to whether they could raise a team.

Sunday, saw the start of the Mini R.L. Season and for over 400 youngsters in the area these days cannot come quickly enough. They are the stars of tomorrow and most clubs throughout the district have at least four teams from Under 9's, 11's, 13's and 15's. These youngsters turn up each week in all kinds of weather playing the best game in the world and they receive the best encouragement they can by having their parents watching them. Coaches do a fine job in teaching the lads the basics of the game in training, and to see them playing at such a young age is unbelievable.

Both the Barrow Under 19's and Open Age sides are now well prepared for their respective competitions and the only problem the managers and coaches have is who to leave out of their strong squads.

Supporters Club Notes (by K.N.)

Barrow take on unbeaten Division One leaders Oldham this afternoon in a match which both teams will be keen to win. Barrow have won three of their four league games played to date and will remain in the top six if they pick up another two points today, while Oldham will be going flat out to hold on to the league leaders position.

Oldham's five league victories have come against Hunslet, Workington, Widnes, Leeds and Leigh, although it must be said that the "Watersheddings" outfit bowed out of the Lancashire Cup at the first hurdle - at home to Second Division side Blackpool Borough!

However that result seems to have been a "one off" because their form in league fixtures has been virtually faultless. Indeed in five outings they have conceded just 36 points (an average of a little over 7 per game) which in the age of the four point try is a remarkable record.

Barrow, in their last two games, have had the harsh realities of top class rugby brought home to them in no uncertain terms and have been convincingly beaten by St. Helens (Lancashire Cup) and Hull (league). It is then vitally important that they quickly rediscover their winning ways, hopefully today.

I am convinced that once they fully adjust to the pace in Division One they will do quite well. On their day they can do it (as they proved in the Lancashire Cup last season) but what is needed is more consistency, especially away from home.

Congratulations to David Cairns on his selection for the England side to play Wales on October 14th (next Sunday). This will be Dave's fifth "Cap", having previously played for Great Britain (twice) and Great Britain Under 24's (twice).

It is now 18 months since Barrow last lost a home league fixture. This run covers 20 games (all won), three in Division One and seventeen in Division Two.

The last team to win a league game at Craven Park was Wigan who triumphed by 27 - 26 in a Division One fixture on March 27th 1983.
