Today sees the lowering of the curtain on another Watersheddings season. The home defeat by Leigh last weekend was our fourth consecutive defeat and a bad one, too, in which we conceded 54 points. There are several reasons for our poor run of results in recent weeks, such as the return of Aussies Gary Bridge and Bruce Clark, followed by a terrible run of bad luck with injuries which have robbed us of the services of players such as David Topliss, Mick Worrall and Des Foy.

These notes had to be written before our game at Salford on Good Friday, so let's hope we pulled off the win which would ensure that we stayed in the First Division. The prospect of relegation is unlikely, although to be mathematically certain we needed at least a point from our game at the Willows. As today's game is the last home match of the season we can also reflect on some of the campaign's better moments – like the appearance in the Lancashire Cup final last autumn – like the splendid first round Challenge Cup win over Wigan.

In more recent weeks we have tended to struggle but, to keep matters in perspective, we should point out that other so-called leading teams, particularly Hull and Widnes, are suffering similar problems. Hull K.R. and Leeds are in the same mould and Bradford had a run of 11 consecutive League defeats until they began to pull themselves together.

We must thank you all for your support throughout the season. Have a good summer and we will look forward to meeting again in four months time.

WIGAN - HERE COME THE CHAMPIONS

Mighty Wigan, the newly-crowned Rugby League champions, return to Watersheddings today – the scene of their saddest night of the season just ten weeks ago.

It was on that eventful February evening that Graham Lowe's star-studded side was knocked off the Wembley trail and the bitter taste of defeat was hard to swallow for Lowe and his not-so-merry men on that night.

As coach Lowe stated recently: "That was the last time there was any sign of panic within the team. I am really jealous we can't be at Wembley."

However, a typically professional reaction to the defeat has seen Wigan remain unbeaten since their cup crash (not including the Good Friday clash with Saints) and striding emphatically to their first championship success for 27 years.

Nobody can begrudge Wigan their title glory as dynamic, exciting players of the class of Lydon, Bell, Hanley, Edwards, Gregory, Gill and Stephenson have turned on the heat to "razzle-dazzle" their bewildered opponents on attack and "zilch" them on defence.

The modern day try-scoring hero, Ellery Hanley, remarkably playing now in the No. 13 jersey, has enjoyed a blitz of tries and is close to smashing the Wigan tries-in-a-season record set by Johnny Ring way back in the 1920's.

Just which is Hanley's best position on a rugby field is open to debate. But his critics who claim that he is not the most comfortable of players when using the ball can only admire the unbelievable regularity with which he scores the tries.

Who knows, is it too far fetched to believe that one day Ellery may wear the Great Britain No. 13 jersey in Test match battle?

Wherever he plays, however, Ellery is a real handful be it loose-forward, stand-off, centre or even on the wing where Frank Myler played him on the 1984 Great Britain tour down under.

Hanley's switch to the pack has made competition for places in Wigan's back division slightly less intense. Big money signing Andy Gregory is repaying his fee with superb performances, while stand-off Shaun Edwards links excellently with his half-back partner, to cause havoc in the centre of the field.

The mercurial talents of the enigma – Henderson Gill – blend with the more polished skills of centres Dean Bell and David Stephenson, while the sheer pace of Joe Lydon is breathtaking at times.

But the unsung hero of the Wigan backs is undoubtedly full-back Steve Hampson, whose brilliance in fielding high balls earned him the ultimate accolade recently from Wigan vice-chairman Maurice Lindsay who compared him favourably with that great Aussie No. 1 Gary Jack.

Coach Lowe feels that in Hampson and Lydon, he has the best two full-backs in the British game and two certainties for the full back job on next year's tour to Australia.

Young Oldhamer Richard Russell could come into contention for a place in the side after appearing for the Great Britain under-21's against France recently.

Up front, skipper Graeme West has been an inspiration this season and his bulldozing front-row play has been a feature of the Wigan success.

Hooker Martin Dermott has impressed enough to earn under-21 honours and Brian Case has been a tower of strength up front also.

Dermott, in fact, may miss today's game with injury which will give a recall to Oldhamer Nicky Kiss – that popular hooker from Saddleworth.

Our former star Andy Goodway will be in the second-row, probably alongside tough-tackling Ian Potter, with Hanley and loose-forward.

Wigan's attack is what captures the imagination of RL fans, but their defence, magnificently organised by Lowe's methods, is far and away the best in the league.

Lowe feels that Wigan's championship success is just the start of years of dominance by the Riversiders. Next season, with a year's experience of British RL behind him, he will guide his men in his own meticulous way towards that coveted grand slam of five trophies.

At present, however, he can celebrate the clinching of the title to add to the Lancashire Cup and the John Player Trophy and set his sights on Old Trafford in the Premiership – even though his mind may wander back to that fateful night at Watersheddings when Halifax and St Helens do battle at Wembley a week on Saturday.

Around the League... with Roughyed

Hull centre Gary Schofield, that magnificent poacher of tries, notched up a career century of tries with two against Widnes recently. This really is a remarkable achievement by this young star, who is set to turn out for Sydney giants Balmain again this summer. In the last Aussie season, Schofield starred for the Tigers alongside fellow Briton, Tony Myler, and this time his Hull team mate Lee Crooks will wear the Balmain colours.

Crooks leaves Bruce Clark's Aussie team, Western Suburbs, generally regarded as one of Sydney's weaker sides, to join Balmain, who must have a real chance of success.

An interesting RL documentary will be screened by the BBC on the eve of the Challenge Cup final on 1st May. The BBC took their cameras to lowly Huddersfield and to mighty Wigan, hoping to show the contrasting fortunes of the first and second division clubs.

The cameras took in a Huddersfield match against Runcorn in front of a 362 crowd, so the contrasts are clear.

The TV crew spent almost six hours at the West Yorkshire club and the programme on 1st May looks to be well worth seeing.

The Premiership competition gets underway this weekend with League champions Wigan confident of reaching Old Trafford and lifting the trophy to go alongside the Lancashire Cup, the John Player Trophy, the Stones Bitter championship trophy.

Old Trafford looks set to house a massive crowd, with the added attraction of a Second Division premiership final to lure the neutral fans to Manchester for the big day. The crowd could well hit the 40,000 mark, especially if the crowd pullers from Central Park do make it all the way.

Teams of the quality of Warrington, St Helens, Castleford and Halifax are sure to be well to the fore in the quest to reach the final and Wigan will have to be at their best.

After clinching the championship, the Wigan board are now setting their sights even higher and are pressing the Rugby League Authorities to stage a World Club Championship against the winners of the Australian League's Grand Final.

How about a Parramatta v Wigan match to decide which is the world's greatest team? It would certainly set the heart beating with a real Anglo-Aussie confrontation at stake. A possibility for the future, perhaps!

What a season Doncaster have had! Once regarded as the also-rans of the Rugby League, their shock knock out competition wins over Salford and Hull K.R. in the last two years have brought a taste of the good life to Tattersfield.

Ex-Castleford 'A' team coach Barry Sheridan has done a marvellous job and deserves enormous credit for the success he has generated.

The Dons, at the time of writing, are well in the running for a spot in the top four of the Second Division and a home tie in the first round of the lower division's play-offs. What a contrast to the dark days when Doncaster regularly held up the rest as the bottom club in the Rugby League.

Other revivals in the Second Division have come at Rochdale Hornets, who seem capable of doing well in the play-off, and perhaps less significantly at Mansfield, who under the leadership of former Oldham players Jim Crellin and Ray Clark have been able to show more confidence on the field.

Former Rochdale Hornets, Blackpool Borough and Barrow loose-forward Norman Turley has recently taken over the reigns as coach of Workington Town, a proud club suffering bad times at present.

Turley will have his work cut out at Derwent Park because Town have slumped drastically this year. But if Norman can produce the sort of inspiration his own performances gave as a player, then maybe a revival is on the way for the Cumbrians.

THE OLDHAM RUGBY QUEEN CONTEST

Friday, 28th August, 1987

Could we take this opportunity to ask all our friends and supporters to watch out for any hooligans present at home and away matches. They are slowly creeping into League and Cup matches throughout the R.L. Our game is known the world over for its well behaved fans. Let's keep it that way, please report any idiots to the nearest policeman or steward. If possible give their names to any club official who will take the necessary action.

THE EDITOR TALKING

... on Rugby League's May Day

Rugby League's biggest day of the year comes up again a week on Saturday when St Helens and Halifax clash in front of what is expected to be a sell-out crowd at Wembley. The Challenge Cup final has seen some fine matches in recent times with that never-to-be-forgotten epic between Wigan and Hull in 1985 taking pride of place. Last year's final between Castleford and Hull K.R. paled in comparison, but nevertheless kept the large crowd entertained until the end, with John Dorahy's touchline kick just failing, and the cup returning to Wheldon Road.

Joe Lyndon's two long-range tries were the highlight of the 1984 final as cup kings Widnes overcame a developing Wigan outfit, while the 1983 match sticks in the memory as the day the little mining community of Featherstone celebrated a magnificent victory over hot favourites Hull. Twelve months earlier had seen the emergence of Elland Road as a big match Rugby League venue when, after drawing at Wembley, Hull and Widnes replayed at the famous soccer stadium, with David Topliss lifting the cup for the Humbersiders. Mick Burke won the Lance Todd Trophy as man of the match in Widnes's victory over Hull K.R. in 1981 and a year earlier saw the first all-Humberside final with the Rovers coming out on top against the black and whites from the other side of the city.

The eighties have produced some terrific finals and all the signs suggest that Wembley '87 will be no exception. Saints, under the leadership of the irrepressible Alex Murphy, are a superb attacking machine, while Halifax, magnificently rejuvenated by the Australian influence, in particular player-coach Chris Anderson, are quite capable of producing quality football themselves. The romance of the cup is evident one again this year, with Anderson and fellow Aussie Graham Eadie making farewell appearances under the Twin Towers.

Anderson played on the wing for Widnes at Wembley 12 years ago and now, after a superb career looks set to bow out in the best possible manner – appearing in an English final at Wembley. 2nd May is Anderson's 35th birthday and what a better way to celebrate than by lifting the famous trophy for Halifax. The story if full back is perhaps even more remarkable. The legendary star of several years of intense Sydney competition and Australian Test appearance actually retired from competitive rugby three years ago. It was only the persuasive tongue of old friend Anderson which tempted Eadie to return to the big time and join Halifax on a one-year contract this season.

Now in the twilight of his playing days, Eadie fulfils a personal ambition that seemed to be eluding him. I feel sure Halifax will have the support of many Aussie enthusiasts on the big day as "Opes" and the "Wombat" bow out in style. It will be a big day also for Queenslander Grant Rix and Keith Neller in the Halifax ranks and Saints' Aussies Phil Veivers and Brett Clark. Halifax must be aware of the brilliant attacking triangle of Saints half-backs Neil Holding and Clark and loose-forward Chris Arkwright, ensuring that this talented trio is kept quiet. With a powerful pack including internationals Fieldhouse, Platt and Hagerty, Saints will prove a real handful but the Thrum Hallers are in superb form with match winners of their own.

Former Wigan men Gary Stephens, Mick Scott, Colin Whitfield, John Pendlebury, Brian Julife are no strangers to the Wembley atmosphere and I feel the Halifax fans will be celebrating the winning of the cup on the trek back to Yorkshire. A cup winning performance will be sweet music for Anderson who, only 12 months ago, underlined Halifax as a top team, after years in the doldrums, by lifting what was then the Slalom Lager Championship title.

TRAVELEADS TOP FAN AWARDS

Five nominees, ranging from a 73-year-old Salford woman to an 18-year-old Leeds schoolboy, and featuring a Stock Exchange worker, lined up for the 1987 Traveleads Top Fan Award of a £4,000 Canadian holiday in the final at Leeds on Thursday.

The third annual presentation of Rugby League's official Supporter of the Year award – a two week Wardair holiday for two based in Toronto and Vancouver – was at Headingley, and a five man panel of judges, headed by BBC commentator Ray French, has selected five finalists.

BOB EVANS – Employed on the floor of the Stock Exchange, the 36-year-old Londoner was converted to Rugby League with the birth of Fulham in 1980. When Fulham was rescued from liquidation in 1984 and switched to the National Sporting Centre at Crystal Palace, he was appointed on the voluntary management committee. With the club now at Chiswick, he is unpaid team administrator.

HARRY FALKINGHAM – Celebrating his 70th birthday this June, his father first took him to Headingley in 1927. Joined the Leeds Supporters' Club in 1947 and is currently organising his 40th Wembley trip. He has served on every players' benefit committee since 1971, has served the Leeds Hospital Broadcasting Service since 1952 and was secretary of the Yorkshire Federation of Supporters' Clubs for 14 years, now being a life member.

MATTHEW FLETCHER – The youngest ever Traveleads Top Fan Finalist, the 18-year-old pupil at Horsforth School, Leeds, travels on his own by public transport to watch his adopted team Doncaster – despite being totally deaf. The son of Raymond Fletcher, of the Yorkshire Post and Rothmans Rugby League Yearbook, he began following the Tattersfield Club as an 11-year-old, becoming a regular attender two years later. At 14 he lost his hearing, but still travelled solo on bus or train to Doncaster from his Leeds home, plus saving his pocket money for regular 'away' trips.

DORIS HALL – Began following hometown Salford as a schoolgirl in 1930. Now 73, she serves the club as an unpaid volunteer operating a lottery kiosk five days a week plus helping with catering at training sessions, 'A' team games and First team matches. Before League fixtures she organises and sells official programmes. As well as attending all away matches, she is renowned for her red and white wardrobe of clothes and her Salford home is painted – red and white!

PATRICIA PARKINSON – The mother of three is secretary of Sheffield Eagles Supporters' Club and has not missed an Eagles match since their formation in 1984. A volunteer, she is the club's top fund raiser, both on match days and during the week. She also helps with catering and serves refreshments for the players.

CAPTAIN'S TALE

CAPTAIN'S TALE

By DAVID TOPLISS

After our Challenge Cup win over Wigan at Watersheddings in the first round we are looking forward to meeting them in the final Stones Bitter championship of the 1986-87 season.

No doubt, Wigan will be really motivated to avenge that cup shock, especially as they beat us 54-2 at Central Park a fortnight ago and they are chasing all sorts of club and First Division records.

The Wigan camp is still smarting at the way we beat them in the Challenge Cup and that's not surprising because if they had won here on that eventful February night I think they would have walked off with every cup that is up for grabs.

We will have to be on our mettle and I am hoping I will be fit to play in what could well be my last game for Oldham.

Having played Salford at the Willows on Friday, we hope to be in a happier position by now and, hopefully the threat of relegation will be behind us.

After the terrible defeat by Leigh in our last home game let's hope we can stand up to Wigan and salvage a bit of pride against the runaway champions, who are really on song and playing at the top of their form.

It has been an up-and-down season in which we have been brilliant at times and pretty awful at other times.

Against Leigh, we did not compete in the second half and that has happened a few times this season. Let's hope we can at least produce a good display today with which to bring down the curtain on the League programme.
