Welcome to Central Park

A VERY warm welcome to Central Park for the start of what promises to be, one of the most exciting seasons in the history of our game.

The top clubs do seem determined to equal or better the achievements of ourselves! Whether they will or not we'll have to wait and see, but I can promise you this, they will have to go some, to knock us off our rightful perch at the top of the Rugby League tree.

We are delighted to welcome to Wigan today our sponsors, 'Whitbread' and in particular, Ray O'Hara, Whitbread's free trade sales manager who has been a great help in organising today's event. There can be little doubt that the 'Wigan Summer Sevens' has become one of the most prestigious pre-season events in British sport.

There can't be many occasions that create that special atmosphere, for both player and spectator, that is felt at Central Park on Sevens Day.

The anticipation of seeing a super afternoon's entertainment and a feast of fast open rugby all goes to create a great occasion.

Wigan Rugby League fans have the reputation of being some of the best in British sport, and I must say you all lived up to that reputation last season.

Not many clubs, soccer or rugby, can boast an average gate of around 15,000 and have less crowd problems than we have at Central Park.

In fact Central Park has been described as one giant family enclosure, and I suppose that that is a fair description and a tribute to each and every one of you, once again, many thanks and enjoy today's games.

I WOULD like to welcome all our loyal fans back to Central Park for the new season and the traditional Sevens tournament.

As a coach, this annual competition is very important as it gives me an early opportunity to check on the players' fitness after the summer holidays. In fact the slimmed down format is a fine testing ground as there are few sports more physically demanding than rugby league Sevens.

And I am happy to report that I could have turned out at least three fit sides today!

All the lads have spent the off season sticking to their training schedules — a lot have done even more — and I was delighted to see the general level of fitness when I returned from Down Under.

Of course the lads who were on tour are fighting fit and I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Great Britain side on their fine performance in the Third Test.

OK, we lost the Ashes but that victory proves the Aussies are not invincible by a long chalk and has given the Kiwis great heart for the forthcoming World Cup final.

The Wigan lads who toured are naturally in peak condition, but they need to be as the competition for places at Central Park this season will demand extraordinary fitness.

That, however, can only be good for the club and the spectators.

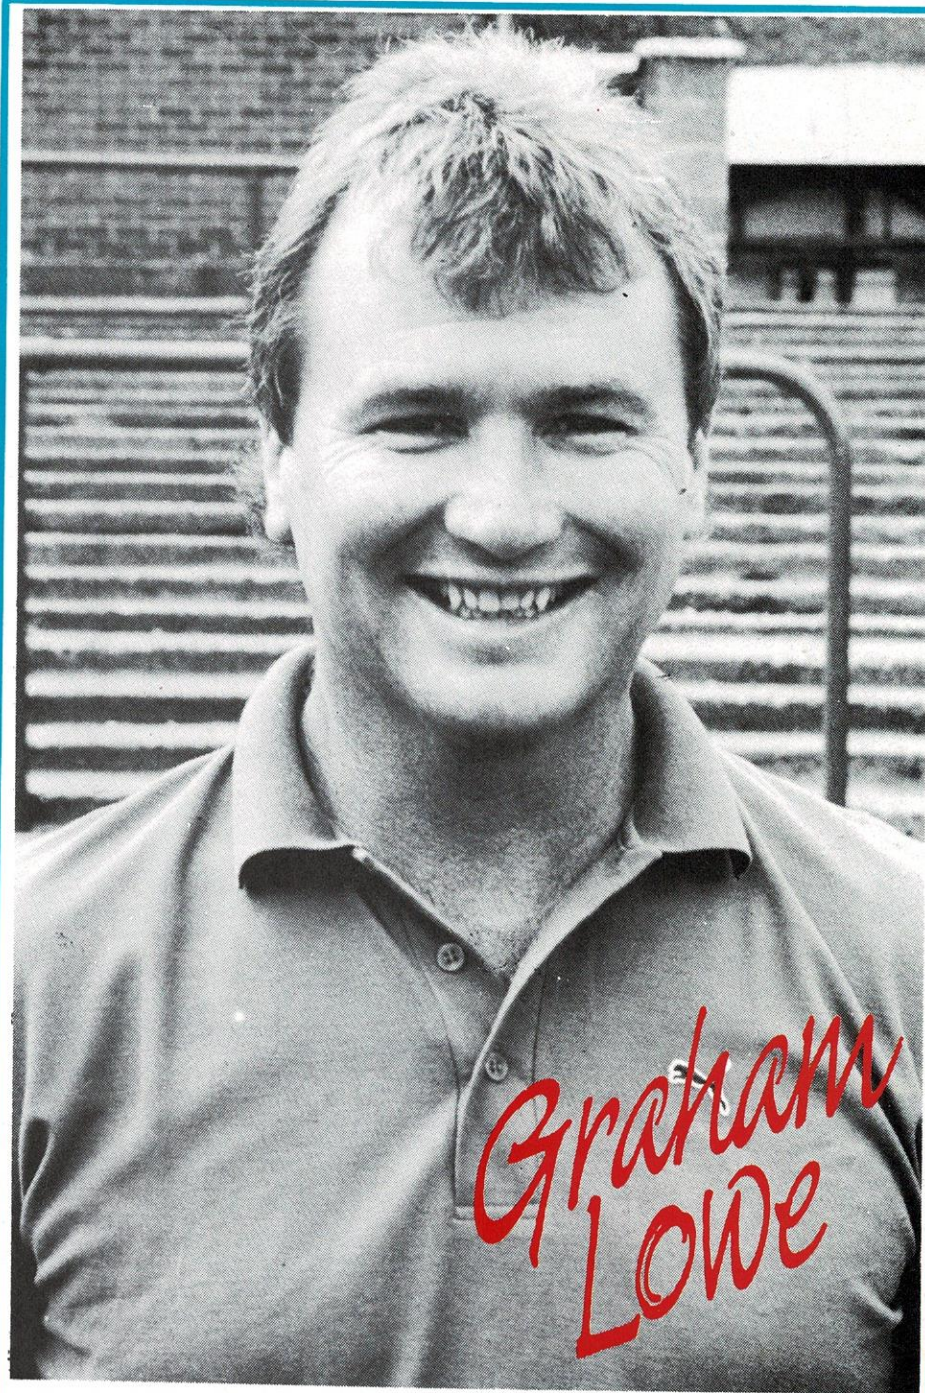

We have an exciting season ahead of us and hopefully a successful one.

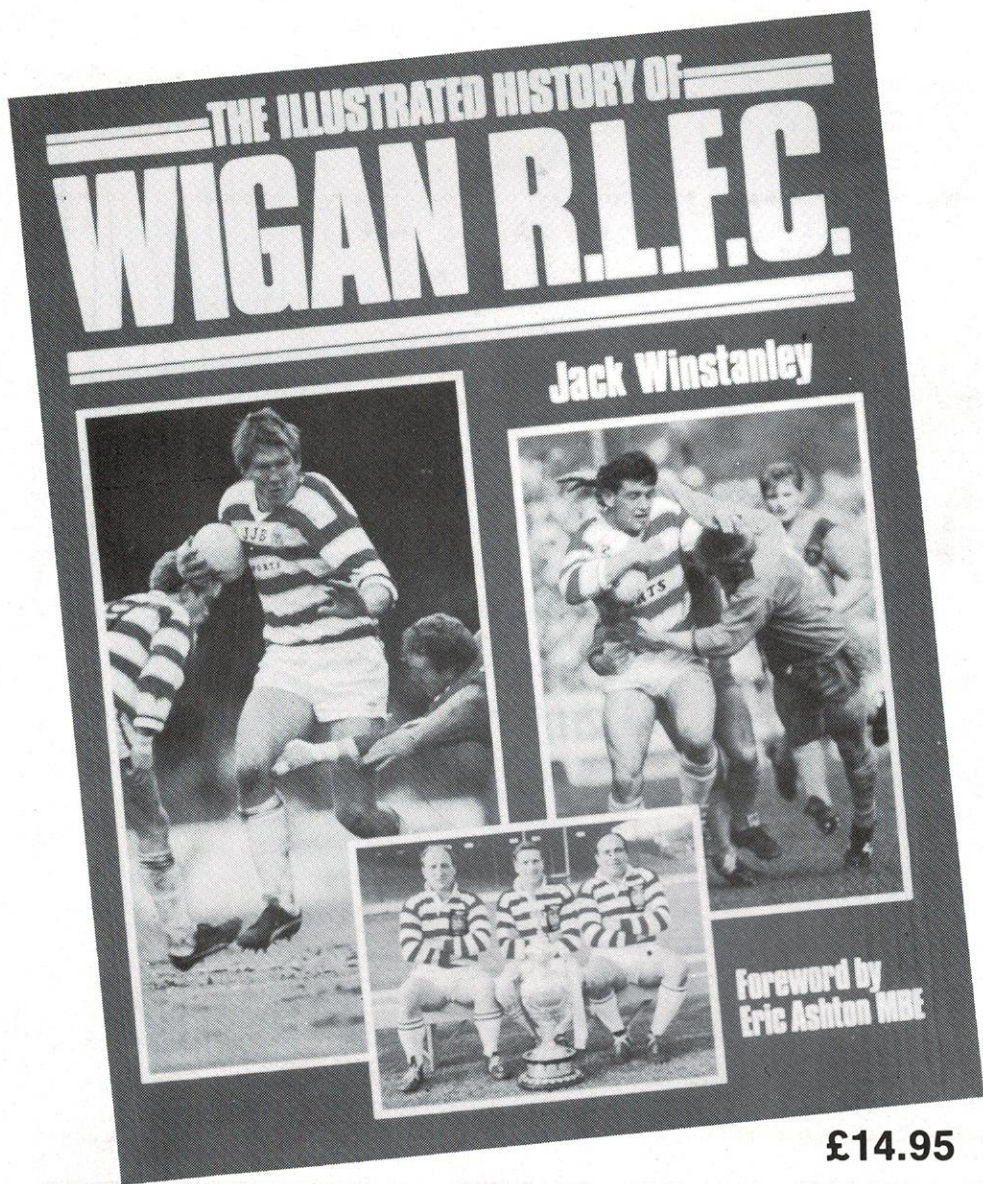

As last year we shall be taking each game as it comes and concentrate on winning.

It will be no different today, we won this competition last season and are determined to hold on to every piece of silverware . . . and get our hands on a few more for that matter.

With a spot of good weather this afternoon we should all see some spectacular sport and entertainment which, after all, is the name of the game.

Enjoy yourselves.

WELCOME back to Central Park for the first game of the season.

Now as a plain sentence in our mother tongue, that's a pretty clear, straightforward statement.

There are those, however, who would not agree.

In fact, they would argue it's not true at all.

Certain rugby league purists do not regard the Sevens tournament as the 'real' start to the season.

On this particular match day, they stay doggedly in the pub loudly proclaiming it's only a little lads run-around and usually slip, misty-eyed, back into the good old days when limitless tackles, fog and deep night frosts made rugby league a game for men.

At this point it's best to sneak away and watch a plank warp so as to avoid terminal boredom.

I always suspect that such rugby league Luddites are concealing their real feelings.

I reckon that they would actually love to go and watch the Sevens but have become so deeply entrenched in their own ancient beliefs over the years that they no longer have the bottle to break the habit.

Their pride would be just too much to swallow.

It's just like these people who go on foreign holidays and claim, en masse, they have had a completely wonderful experience.

I simply do not believe that everyone has had the 'time of their lives' in terrible Torremolinos.

Perhaps most enjoyed some of it, but it's a sad reflection on the English character that no-one is ever prepared to admit that two weeks of sun, Sangria and salmonella can in fact add up to abject misery.

It did when I went, anyway.

But, I digress.

Back to the Sevens and those blokes who today are sadly not with us.

Pity really, because the Sevens can be really entertaining.

I remember Green Vigo with a head like a snooker ball running amok in the open spaces, and today Mark Preston can show us all just how quick he really is.

And try telling the players that the Sevens is just a kiddies romp in the park. It's a well known fact that getting to the final on a warm August day is as taxing as plating fog, or playing in New Zealand when Mick Stone is referee.

But of course, I am wasting my breath here, preaching to the converted, as you obviously already agree that the Sevens is indeed fine entertainment.

Mind you, at least the tournament gives me the chance to impress the missing minority at the first league game against Oldham, when I can commence: "Welcome to Central Park all RL purists, for the first real game of the season . . ."

THE new season begins as usual with the Summer Sevens, hopefully to be played in fine weather and provide an ideal warm-up for the eight competing teams.

TESTIMONIAL MATCH

On Wednesday next, 10th August, the Nicky Kiss Testimonial match will be played at Central Park between a Wigan Select and an All Stars 13. Kick off 7.30 p.m. Admission: Adults £1.50, Juniors £1.

Testimonial events have continued throughout the close season, and details of coming attractions will be given on this page during the next few months. There are also special testimonial souvenirs on sale, including brochures, T-Shirts, engraved glasses and ties. These can be purchased on match days from our shops inside the ground, and during the week from the souvenir shop.

ISLE OF MAN

In two weeks time we make our third visit to the Isle of Man for the Charity Shield, Cup Winners versus Champions. If anyone has still not made arrangements for travel and accommodation we have some booking forms available.

MEMBERSHIPS

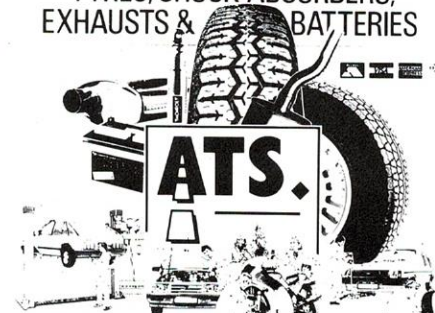

Renewal of memberships of the Supporters' Association starts today, and the shop on the Popular side terraces will remain open all afternoon to deal with these. New members are, of course, welcome to join. Prices are the same as last season — adults £1, juniors (under 16's) 50p. Our first away trip is to Wakefield on 4th September, and details of times/ prices will appear in the Oldham programme the week before. It would be very helpful if supporters would renew their memberships before travelling rather than on the coaches, and we have two home games, as well as today, when this can be done.

PROGRAMME FAIR

The Lancashire Federation of R.L. Supporters' Clubs and the R.L. Collectors Federation have organised a Programme Fair in the Riverside Club before today's 7's. All member clubs have been invited to run a stall which will include badges, pens, pennants etc. as well as programmes, and there is a Rugby League exhibition, so if you have the chance before entering the ground pay it a visit. Open from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and only 25p admission.

DEPARTMENT OF THE ENVIRONMENT

Dear Mr. Lindsey,

Many congratulations to you, the players and everyone associated with the Club's magnificent 32-12 victory over Halifax in the Silk Cut Rugby League Challenge Cup Final. It was a privilege to see such a stunning performance.

I wish you and the team continued success.

Yours sincerely,
Colin Moynihan
Minister of Sport

Dear Sir,

I am not a Rugby fan — or perhaps I should say I was not, until this afternoon when I watched that magnificent game on T.V. Congratulations on a wonderful, sporting encounter — both teams and spectators alike. I hope that the game today will light the touchpaper to bring back the sportsmanship to Britain which has for so long been declining in other fields.

I was so impressed that I couldn't resist writing the verse enclosed, (mostly during the interval!) I hope you like it.

Rugby League Cup Final 1988:

Wigan 32 Halifax 12

Before the game they sing "Abide With Me" —

those faithful Wigan fans, who in their hearts are praying that the Lord "abides" to see the triumph of their team. The battle starts!

The Players know they'll never walk alone — the huge crowd-choir has surely told them so.

While white-haired ladies clap and grin (or groan), depending on which way their fortunes go, old men in rapturous joy jump up and down like little boys; remembering lost youth, and ev'ry try that's scored's a golden crown—symbol of honour, dignity and truth.

The little boys themselves, their eyes aflame, for eighty minutes live in Paradise— with wide-eyed wonder, gobbling up the game where ev'ry man's an angel in their eyes.

There, on the field, huge bodies crash and crunch— the burly frames all fortified by faith (and two-pound steaks with spuds and beans for lunch?); for them no fear, no doubt, no haunting wraith, no spectre of defeat darkens the sky— they know that from the chalice they will sup and all thro' life, rememb'ring ev'ry try, relive the day when Wigan won the Cup!

Yours, Graham Tennant,
The Royd, Yarm on Tees,
Cleveland.

Dear Sir,

I am writing to ask if you would include the enclosed picture of Ellery Hanley in a future programme at the beginning of the next season.

I would be delighted and would hope it will encourage other fans to draw their favourite players.

Maybe if it becomes popular it will appear as a regular feature.

Thank You.

Programme

Towards the end of last season I placed a request for a Halifax vs. Wigan programme in one of my articles to try and help out a Mr. Shaun Foulds of Illingworth. Well, Mr. Foulds later wrote back to me, saying that he'd received three copies of the programme from Wigan fans. One came via John Oakes of Micron Video but the other two were from anonymous sources. Mr. Foulds would like to thank all three for their kindness.

And finally

So here we are at the start of another season. Let's hope it's as good as the last two and don't forget, if there are any facts and figures that you'd like to see on this page, please don't hesitate to get in touch with me, via the Club.

CROSS STREET · OFF CAROLINE STREET · WIGAN

Calling all 7 - 14 year olds!

As you know by now, Wigan Rugby League's official Junior Supporters' Association, the Junior Riversiders, was launched this week, giving you the chance to become part of the Central Park Scene!

As a member you will be able to come along to the monthly meetings where you will hear your favourite music, have the chance to win prizes in quizzes and competitions, watch Wigan in video action, meet the players and Junior Riversiders president, Graham Lowe and perhaps even become the team's mascot. From October onwards, at every home game, one lucky boy or girl will have the exciting opportunity to meet the players and officials before the game and then lead the team out onto the pitch. The mascot will watch the game from the Stand and afterwards again be able to meet the players and collect autographs.

All this and more makes the Junior Riversiders an exclusive club well worth being a member of.

Membership costs £4 each (£3 each if you have brother or sister who can join with you) and for this you will receive the official Junior Riversiders T-Shirt, badge and membership card plus birthday card, 10% discount from the Club Shop and of course, free admission to all members meetings.

Membership is limited to 450, so if you haven't already joined, please apply straightaway. Forms can be obtained from the Club Shop after today's Sevens competition.

Look for this page in every programme from now on for news and events concerning the Junior Riversiders.

Enjoy the Sevens today and remember, that you can be a great help to the players and stewards by not going on the pitch when the games are finished.

Peeps into the past

NOW what have these four likely looking lads got in common?

Well, apart from appearing very gleeful, they are all at Wembley and clutching winners' medals.

This happy shot was taken beneath the twin towers two seasons ago when Halifax beat St. Helens 19 pts-18 in a gripping final.

That victory was in the main, down to John Pendlebury, for his drop goal and that crucial last ditch tackle on Mark Elia.

And so to the main point of the picture. These four lads are all former Wigan players, enjoying a new lease of life at Thrum Hall.
