WELCOME

from Gary Hetherington

To our rivals from Watersheddings for what I am sure will be a very keenly contested match. This is of course our fourth meeting and we have registered two excellent away victories, but the opening match of the season at Don Valley resulted in a 16 all draw and I wouldn't be surprised to see a similar score today. These notes were written before our game against London on Thursday night and at the time of writing our injury list was growing. It requires a huge physical and mental effort on behalf of the players to play three times in one week, but if we are to achieve our goal we have to overcome such obstacles. Players often carry injuries into games and over their careers they learn to cope with pain and other disabilities. Of course, the fans are not aware - sometimes the coach isn't either - and we all tend to take for granted the need to perform at a consistent level. There has been a lot of talk and speculation recently regarding a Superleague and/or a breakaway of leading clubs. As one who has attended recent meetings of leading clubs I can report that this is a long way from the truth, but there is an undercurrent of concern from most of the top clubs on such issues as Voting; TV Distribution and Levy payments. In Rugby League each of the 36 clubs has the same status and is entitled to the same financial payout. There is now however a growing feeling that a different arrangement needs to be introduced which rewards the clubs who have succeeded and shown initiative, whilst at the same time protect clubs not so fortunate. Further developments are expected in the next few weeks as the leading clubs make various suggestions. Watch this space!

KNOW THE GAME

Tim Butcher

Should you attend a Rugby League Level III Coaching Course this summer, a section of that course will be devoted to the collection and analysis of statistics. Many traditionalists will scoff at the need for such methods at all, but modern coaches now see 'stats' as a useful vehicle in his job of turning out an effective Rugby League team. Statistics can either be collected live or from video and though each coach will have his own system, here are the most common areas studied.

1. Tackle count. Quite straight forward you may think, but with the pace of today's game, often a caller and scribbler is needed. On top of tackles made, tackles missed by each player are recorded, and consecutive tackles (doubles and trebles).
2. Possession count. A recording of each set of 6 plays, whether each play finished satisfactorily, or if it didn't, then why not - this indicates how well a team has controlled possession of the ball.
3. Drive count. A record of how many times each player took the ball to the defence, how many times he or she off loaded, how many times he or she busted the line.
4. Territorial Record. A cross on a plan of the field for every play the ball for each team, which will indicate the success of any territorial game plan.
5. A stop watch for each team when they have possession of the ball - obviously the longer you can keep the opposition from the ball, the less chance of them scoring.

Stats can tell a coach a lot about his team and his individual players. For instance, a player's tackle count can be used as a means of raising his next performance, similarly his work rate in attack if his drive count is unsatisfactory. Obviously, the number of tackles and drives expected from a prop will be normally higher than from a winger. A coach will also use stats to plan his coaching schedule for the next week. For example, if there is a low count on consecutive tackles this may indicate more work is needed on marker defence, or if the team has spent no time in the opposition's quarter, then he will have to work on controlling the ball, getting in a good kick and an effective chase. On the whole, the proper use of statistics will make a coaching job a little bit easier and at the top level, mean the difference between top four and relegation.

Sheffield Eagles have secured more sponsorship both for the team as a whole and for their star players. On the night of their recent victory over Carlisle, a cheque was presented by Davina Health & Fitness Ltd, the local sports food supplement manufacturer and sponsor of Jamie Reeves - the World's Strongest Man. Like Jamie Reeves the top Eagles players will receive free nutritional advice and supplements to boost their strength and, we hope, their performance.

Davina products are on sale to supporters at the Club Shop.

Venue: Woodbourn Stadium
19th Feb 1992
Sheffield 28 Balford 10

In the fast and exciting game at Woodbourn Stadium Sheffield entertained Salford, who started the game the best, scoring in the first minute with their Left Wing going over in the corner after some good passing from the Salford Backs. Sheffield replied quickly with Darren Turner going over from the play of the ball.

Man of the match Darren Turner, playing in place of Ryan Sheridan who was on First Team duty, created the second try when he hoisted a high ball, ran 15yds, jumped and caught the ball and scored close to the post. Alan Boyer kicked the goal, then put in a good kick on the fifth tackle into the Salford in goal area. Richard Hewitt made a good tackle on the full back, who spilled the ball over the line for Alan Boyer to score the try and kick the goal. With two penalties from Alan Boyer, one from 48yds, Sheffield were in front at half time 22-4.

In the second half Salford's passing of the ball was superb. Apart from a 50yd try by Great Britain Winger Cousins, the Eagles defence held firm and they showed good character. Then Matt Larder burst through four tackles to score.

This was a good performance from Sheffield, 28-10. Alan Boyer now needs four goals for his Century. Tries: Darren Turner 2, Alan Boyer, Matt Larder Goals: Boyer 6.

YOUNGERS ALLIANCE REPORT

The Alliance team started their Second Division Cup campaign with a splendid win over Bramley last Saturday afternoon. Played in a biting wind, the match provided excellent entertainment. Eagles played with the wind in the first half and built up a 16-4 lead by half time. In the second half, Bramley failed to use the wind effectively and the Eagles ran out 22-10 winners.

Eagles were due to play Doncaster last Tuesday night and their next home game is at Woodbourn Road on Friday 13 March against Rochdale Hornets, kick off 7.30 p.m.

LEAGUE Express

It was interesting to see that today's combatants were the only clubs from the second division to be invited to the so-called 'Super League' meeting.

In Oldham's case, the invite will have been based on the club's potential rather than achievement this year as it looks likely that they'll miss out on promotion. There have certainly been plenty of new faces at Watersheddings since Peter Tunks took charge, and it looks as though the results might be coming their way in the run-in.

They've certainly got more to do than Sheffield Eagles, who should be in the top flight next season barring an unpredictable disaster.

True, the Eagles are very different from Oldham in terms of history and tradition. But the clubs share one thing, and that is a big potential in the future, and if a 'Super League' should ever come about, they both will deserve a place in it.

Many people are still having problems getting their League Express on a Monday morning. The best way to ensure you get all the details on a Monday morning is to order your copy at your local newsagents.

EYE VIEW of

OLDHAM

If results go approximately to form for the rest of the season, Oldham look set to finish in third place in Division 2. This will be regarded as something of a disaster amongst some of their followers, who set very high standards for their team. However, with the benefit of hindsight over three-quarters of the season, it is an achievement. Peter Tunks and Eric Fitzsimons have not only had to build a new side, they have had to put themselves and the Oldham fans through the painful process of dismantling the old side in order to bring the Club's financial position back into shape. This has inevitably meant giving youth its head. EAGLES have taken advantage of this in the two away fixtures and beaten Oldham comfortably on both occasions. This has led Peter Tunks to getting "the full confidence of the Board". In a lot of clubs, both soccer and RL, this is a coded way of saying that you should be examining the 'Situations Vacant' column with a bit more interest, but happily this has not been the case. I think that today we will see the evidence of Oldham's progress.

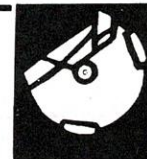

The players to watch for are Sean Tyrer on the wing. Signed from Wigan, he has settled in quickly, has a good turn of speed and also takes the goal-kicks. The centres are Aussie Vince Nicklin and another ex pie-eater Ged Byrne. Ian Sherratt and Tim Street are a strong pair of props. Chris Joynt, although only 20, has been putting in some tremendous performances in the second row and has been interesting St Helens in the process. Richard Pachniuk has moved from the front row to loose forward of late. He is very much an all action tackler and extremely mobile in open play.

So, we have an exciting game in prospect. The Leigh result was very disappointing and we picked up a few knocks, but this only serves to test us for what may be in store next season. We can still win the championship and that must remain our target, so let's get behind the EAGLES and get them moving again. Altogether now, EEEEEEEGULLS!

SHEFFIELD EAGLES WOMEN
MATCH REPORT 16 FEBRUARY
DIVISION TWO CUP FIRST ROUND

ROCHDALE RAVENS 16 SHEFFIELD EAGLES WOMEN 14
(Sponsored by Hart Owen)

A tough first round draw saw Sheffield travelling to Rochdale and being defeated 16-14 knocking them out of the Cup.

Things went badly in the first half. Unusual handling errors dominated Sheffield's game putting them under continual attacking pressure from a strong Rochdale side who kept the ball alive and inevitably broke the Sheffield line of defence leaving the Sheffield team 12 points in arrears at half time.

The side looked completely different in the second half as they used the ball well and ran in 3 tries. Two from TRACEY HUGHES from good team work and an excellent individual try from SYLVIA ROSS which she converted. Nevertheless Rochdale fought back with another try leaving the final score at 16-14 - A very disappointing result for the Sheffield team.

BRAIN STRAIN

Gary had a bottle of wine given, but had no corkscrew. How did he get the wine out of the bottle without pulling out the cork, without make a hole in it, and without breaking or piercing the bottle?

Answer: He simply pushed the cork into the bottle.

KORNY KORNER

We have connections in high places and have had leaked to us an answer sheet completed by an EAGLES player, at school, for a History exam. Of course we would not dream of naming him, or would we?

Who was the fastest runner in history?

Answer: Adam, he was first in the human race.

What did the ancient Egyptians do when it was dark?

Answer: They turned on the Israelites.

What musical instrument did the ancient Britons play?

Answer: The Anglo-Saxophone.

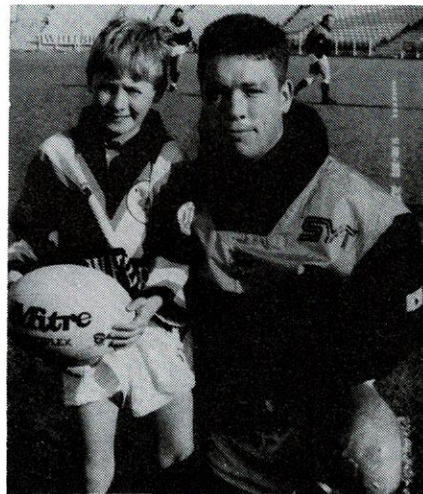

Who was the father of the Black Prince?

Old King Coal.

Who fought in the desert, carrying a lamp?

Florence of Arabia.

I don't think we have heard the last of these.

Scorers: TRIES: Farrell (2); Aston; Lidbury GOAL: Aston

The Eagles snatched revenge for their earlier cup defeat with a last gasp try by former Keighley player Kevin Farrell.

Despite putting Keighley under a lot of early pressure, Eagles had only Farrell's fourth minute try and were three points behind at the interval, thanks to a Dixon drop goal and an opportunist try by Regan from a kick ahead against the run of play, which left Dixon with a simple goal.

Eagles brought on both substitutes and it paid
a quick dividend with Aston collecting a loose ball for a try which he goaled and then Lidbury found space on the right to race in at the corner.

But within ten minutes, Atkinson and Putterfield both broke the Eagles line to give Keighley the lead and, just as the Eagles
final burst seemed destined to failure,
Lidbury having been pushed into touch,
Farrell broke through for the winning try.

Eagles' first captain came via a family connection - Steve Cooper being the brother-in-law of Gary Hetherington. The two had played together at York almost ten years earlier. Gary had moved on to Leeds, Huddersfield and Kent, whilst Steve had remained at York.

Steve made his debut in the Eagles first match against Rochdale and played sufficiently well to earn the Man of the Match award ahead of hat trick hero, Paul McDermott.

After two months in the job, Steve asked to be relieved of the captaincy, arguing that the responsibility was affecting his game. He
Eagles 31 games that season.

A strong running second rower, Steve was never a great try scorer and, in fact, managed only a couple of drop goals during his short stay with the Eagles, one of these a forty yard angled effort which proved crucial in a close fought 16-11
victory over Carlisle.

Steve's Eagles career ended unhappily with his being sent off for the first time in the last minute of Good Friday derby at home to Mansfield. He decided to call it a day and announced his retirement from the game, but will always be remembered as a player who made a major contribution to the Eagles' first faltering footsteps
in the game.

JUNIOR EAGLES

The U17's recent good run came to an end with a 27-10 reversal against Garforth. Having beaten local rivals Hoyland 33-0 the previous week, the lads needed a win to secure a top four play-off place. They now have to wait on other results to see if they will qualify.

Although the U15's still have not returned to winning ways, recent matches have seen an improvement in performance since the arrival of new coach Russ Nelson. He has got the lads playing with determination and they did well against high-flying Normanton, who have lost only once in the league this season. The 24-16 defeat had many positive features and we expect the team to finish the season strongly.

The U14's are making an impact on their new league. Following a narrow 26-22 defeat against league leaders Siddal, they followed up with a solid performance at Overden winning 28-12. Michael Bailey won the man-of-the-match for his tackling and surging runs, one of which brought him a try. Daniel Wooten also put in an excellent display, scoring a try and kicking 4 goals. Other tries came from Matthew Wright - a 70 yard burst from inside his own half - Darren Wallace and Richard Smith.

The U11's bounced back from the disappointment of the 18-0 defeat by Doncaster at last week's curtain-raiser with a 44-22 win at Dodworth. Both sides played well, with the Eagles sharper finishing bringing them out on top. Loose-forward, Ben Greaves had a good game scoring twice, as did Scott Wallace in the unaccustomed role of stand-off (try and 3 goals). Other tries came from Simon Annis (2), Mark Slatter, Rhydia Ridgewell and Stuart Calvert, who also kicked 3 goals. With the U9/10's playing well in games against St. Maries school and in the mini-league rally before the Universities final last week, things are looking good at all levels within the club.

Today's Pre Match Entertainment is an 8-a-side schoolgirls' rally involving teams from across the north of England. Women's and schoolgirls' rugby league is very much a boom area of our sport and it's great to see these youngsters enjoying themselves here today.

Rugby League coaching is provided to schoolgirls in all the 35 primary schools visited by SADARLDA coaches and to 8 of the local secondary schools.

A Sheffield Eagles Girls team is also in training, and any school girl interested in trying out the game should come to Woodbourn Stadium on Wednesday at 5 pm to join in with the girls. Just bring some kit and ask for head coach, TRACY SOLMON.

Sheffield Eagles Women play in Division Two of the Women's Amateur Rugby League, and are playing today at Hull in a game that will decide which of the two win promotion. Anyone wishing to try their arm with the senior girls should contact SUE JACKSON on 664733 or RUTH GROSSMAN on 304704.

Today's Half Time Entertainment will be Sugg's Sport Golden Kicking Competition.

Youngsters all aged 11 or below will attempt to bounce the ball off the crossbar and through the posts to win £1,000 for their school or club. First they must kick a goal to qualify for the 'final' showdown.

SYT SCHOOLS CUPS

City School have once again set out their stall in the SYT Spring Rugby League Cups.

Their 4th year team, runners up in the SYT League have opened their campaign with four straight wins, against league champions Hinde House 16-10, All Saints 16-10, High Storrs 42-10 and Oakwood 18-16. Oakwood themselves are enjoying a revival, having missed out on league honours, but shocking Hinde House by 22-10.

At second year level, City have started in powerful fashion, accounting for Ecclesfield 44-18 and Handsworth Grange (their first ever game of Rugby league) by 54-0.
