Welcome

— to Dewsbury R.L.F.C. —

The last thing we expected at this stage of the season was a frantic rush to produce a match day programme for a Premiership cup match. We hadn't dismissed any thoughts of a win at Oldham indeed we felt this was a possibility bearing in mind our current form, but a draw never really came into our reckoning. So after having packed our belongings at the Mount for the close season, we have now had the mad panic to unpack them all again ready for this evening.

Unfortunately we just haven't had time to produce a full match programme and we hope that both our home supporters and those from Oldham will accept this one as an adequate substitute.

We would also like to express our apologies to Oldham for the early kick off but with no floodlights available there was little option open to us. We would have liked to play the game this coming weekend but obviously there are so many of you away on Wembley weekends that we felt it wasn't an adequate alternative. So tonight it is, although most of us at the Watersheddings last Sunday would have put money on Greg Pearce tagging on that final conversion to avoid all of this. That wasn't to be and we had an ending which reminded many of us of that "Don Fox miss in the Wembley watersplash final, but no-one misses on purpose and Greg otherwise had an outstanding game against opposition from a higher level. We spawned two or three earlier chances to win the game so the blame if there was to be any at all in such a magnificent performance should be shared amongst those who played and not left to one individual. What is absolutely certain is that Greg will give 200% tonight to atone for this and show all those at Halifax to who he returns at the end of this season exactly what they have been missing.

Tonight's Premiership tie is the last Premiership fixture we will have to play at Batley since we hope to be established in our new home by the time the next Premiership comes around and we intend beating Featherstone in the semi-final and not just coming away with a dull draw.

Any readers of the Dewsbury Reporter will have seen that our managing agents for the stadium development have now recommended a suitable contractor and they in turn have provided all the relevant financial guarantees necessary for such a development. What we now need to do is to conclude our negotiations with Kirklees and get the formal lease signed. We are rather disappointed that it is taking so long to finalise details with Kirklees who appear to take more satisfaction in providing stumbling blocks and delaying tactics than they do in helping professional Rugby League flourish in Kirklees and even more important in the Heavy Woollen Area. Oldham had the council as their executive match sponsors for our match at the Watersheddings. That would be unbelievable within Kirklees. Batley and ourselves have had more than our fair share of problems. It's just a pity that they aren't all like Councillor Brooke a former Mayor of Kirklees and a frequent visitor to our home matches. He has been very understanding and supportive. This needs to rub off on his colleagues and we can then make progress.

As this is our final home match (surely!) of the season we would like to thank everyone for attending through the season. We have again managed to attract an average league attendance in excess of 1100 which we feel is reasonable bearing in mind some of the total non event fixtures which have cropped up.

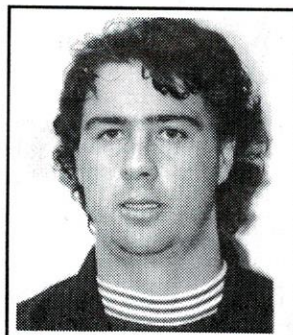

We would also like to thank all those who have worked hard behind the scenes and rarely receive a mention such as the kitmen Chris Hill and David Mayhew and Peggy and Sam Hill who have worked wonders to keep the players looking the part. You only need to drive past their house and see all the socks and shirts hung out on the line to see how much our club means to them. Our thanks to Margaret Brearley and Linda Sykes for feeding the players. Sylvia Fox and daughter Leslie for looking after our opposition guests. Suzanne Ellwood and Christine Eastwood for looking after sponsors and all our gatemen, security, stewards, programme sellers, ball boys, mascot, doctor etc. etc. far too numerous to mention. To anyone who has helped in anyway whatsoever our thanks go out to you and please come back next season. We said it against Batley and we'll say it again tonight - enjoy your Summer and let's hope that Yorkshire Cricket club do well this season which is guaranteed to put Reporter sports editor Peter Snape in a good mood ready for the next exciting season of Heavy Woollen Rugby League.

We are very grateful indeed to Paul and Janet Fahey of the Market House, Dewsbury, for sponsoring tonight's match at very short notice. Paul does a very important job for Dewsbury RLFC as he is a Daily Draw agent, and has been a Dewsbury supporter for many years. The Market House is a popular town centre watering hole for many of our supporters, and visitors will find many old and rare photographs and items of memorabilia in the tap room.

We trust Paul and his party will enjoy the game, and we thank the Market House most sincerely for their continued support.
