IT'S A DOGS LIFE

Hi ya again, St. Bernard here!
Back to Knowsley Road for a Wednesday evening match. This week not only do I not play AGAIN!!! but I also miss Coronation Street. I quite fancy that black dog who runs past the Rovers in the opening sequences. Anyway, it's for a good cause. The Saints are beating all comers in all competitions. Just imagine how good we would be if I was in the side.

This is also our last home match before Christmas, so I'm expecting a Christmas Bonus from the big men in the boardroom. A game against Wigan on Boxing Day would be perfect but Eric's already said that I tackle far too ruff.

I'll see you again on New Years Day after my holidays. I'm either going to Berkshire or Kenilworth. I'm not too sure yet.

Merry Chrstitmas from me,

HUGHES' VIEWS with ERIC HUGHES

As you can imagine, after our excellent victory over Halifax in last weekends Regal Trophy quarter final, all ears were next to the radios on Monday morning hoping to hear that we would get a home draw in the semis. We knew that whatever the opposition it was going to be a tough game and that home advantage could prove to be crucial. Our prayers were answered with the home draw, but the powers that be at Rugby League headquarters dealt us a cruel blow by deciding that we must be the first semi-final. This of course means that in the space of six days we have three of the toughest games imaginable. An away game at Wigan, followed by the semi-final four days later, and finally after one days break taking on Leeds. Still I'm sure that the mood amongst the players at the moment will ensure whatever teams we are able to select for the game, each individual will give his all for the club.

As this is the last home game before Christmas day, may I take this opportunity on behalf of the directors, players and backroom staff to first of all thank you the supporter for your marvellous support throughout the closing year and may you all have Christmas period full of good health, happiness and success.
Enjoy tonight's game.

OLDHAM

ANDY GOODWAY'S

This evenings visitors to Knowsley Road, Oldham are currently 2nd bottom of the Stones Bitter Centenary Championship with six points from their 13 matches. Under coach Andy Goodway the Watersheddings outfit hasn't been afraid to experiment during the season and have given a run out to no less than 29 players. Injuries also haven't helped matters with them finding it very difficult to find a settled line up. Their 3 victories have each been at their Watersheddings home where London 19-8, Workington 30-26 and Castleford 25-20 have each been conquered. St. Helens 18-44, Halifax 4-21, Bradford Bulls 24-30 and Leeds 14-43, however have left Watersheddings with the points. On their travels Oldham have yet to win. They have been beaten at Castleford 22-28, Warrington 8-40, Wigan 12-42, London 14-46, Sheffield Eagles 18-36 and Bradford Bulls 10-14. In the Regal Trophy Oldham travelled to 1st Division Widnes in a tricky 2nd round tie and unfortunately left beaten by 32 points to 8. Andy Goodway is currently attempting to build a squad of players capable of competing with the best for the commencement of Super League and summer rugby. They will play their home matches at Boundary Park, home of Oldham Athletic FC and are currently in negotiations with RFL and Wigan about switching their opening Super League fixture from Central Park to Oldham so they can generate early interest for Super League in the town. Since the end of the last season Paul Atcheson, Ian Gildart, Afi Leuila, Francis Maloney and Rob Myler have joined the Roughyeds whilst Nigel Heslop, Shaun Irwin, Mike Kuiti and Wilson Marsh have departed.

Last season Oldham performed credibly. In the Stones Bitter Championship they finished in 10th position with eleven wins and a draw for a total of 23 points from their 30 matches. In the Regal Trophy Oldham reached the 3rd round were they went down at Widnes 6-20 following a 2nd Round 28 nil home success over Hull KR. In the Challenge Cup with a little luck Oldham could have gone all the way to the final. Eventual winners Wigan ended their interest in the semi final at the Alfred McAlpine Stadium when they won a very exciting game by 48 points to 20. It had until then, been a great cup run, which had seen Bramley beaten at Watersheddings by 70 points to 10 in round 4, Warrington beaten at Wilderspool 17-6 in the 5th round and Huddersfield beaten at home 23-12 in the quarter finals.

Gary Lord

Gary Lord has been playing top Division RL now for over 10 years since he made his debut for Castleford in the 1984-85 season. At 29 years of age he has been one of the most honest, consistent hard working forwards in the game and his opponents hold him in great respect for his ability to take up the football, his eye for a gap, his solid defence and the sheer amount of work he gets through. During his career Oldham are his 4th top side following spells at Castleford, Leeds and Halifax. The highlight to date was whilst he was at Cas when he played full back in the team which won the 1986 Challenge Cup by the narrowest of margins, one point over Hull KR.

Gary played for Castleford from the 1984-85 season until he moved to Headingley for the 1988-89 campaign making 38-14 apps from which he scored 9 tries for the Wheldon Road outfit. Whilst at Leeds he made 37-27 apps, scoring 4 tries between 1988-89 and 1990-91 before he moved to Halifax where he stayed until the end of the 1993-94 season, whilst at Fax Gary 77+12 apps and scored 10 tries. Since his move to Oldham he has had a new lease of life. He is seldom spectacular but is one of those players that you only realise his worth when he is missing. Gary has been unfortunate never to have gained representative recognition for his skills and has proven that the £35,000 transfer fee Oldham had to pay for his services was money very well spent. Now enjoying his life in the pack Gary Lord has made 45+2 appearances for the Roughyeds from which he has scored 7 tries.

WHITTLE'S

CLASS OF '49

Mention Parr Central School in immediate post-war sporting circles and thoughts inevitably turned to Rugby League, with a glance at the honours board confirming their oval-ball prowess.

The prestigious Daily Dispatch Shield, which was competed for by teams throughout Lancashire and the Waring and Ellison Cups all found their way to the sideboard at the Seath Avenue seat of learning from 1946 onwards.

Despite the absence of the gleaming trophy I am reliably informed by second rower Terry Brunskill that the accompanying photograph is of the Parr 'Cent' team which lifted the Ellison Cup three years later.

Almost half a century on it is an interesting exercise to pen a reflective word or two on what fate had in store for the 13 tough-tackling strong running squad who became the pride of Parr when bringing home the silverware.

Sad to relate but centre Ormrod has since died, and what is equally certain is that stand off 'Todder and flying winger Davies both sampled senior Rugby League at Knowsley Road as did centre Gibson at Hilton Park, Leigh.

Schoolboy prodigy Dickenson blossomed into a real star turn at Saints in being a member of the Championship winning team of 1953 and, but for a tragic leg injury would have been in the first local side to lift the Challenge Cup against Halifax at Wembley in 1956.

Now aged 61 'Todder' is living in early retirement at his Haresfinch home and is still as fit as the proverbial fiddle, thanks to regular dips in most of the swimming pools around the St. Helens area.

Ideal Christmas Gift For The RL Fan....

And some lucky supporter could win a copy

Down the years the compelling story of the Rugby League code, from its early cloth cap image to its current ranking as the 'best game in the world,' has been superbly chronicled by scribes from all points of the compass. And when the somewhat off-beat titled 'When Push comes to Shove' landed on the bookshelves two years ago it was an immediate best seller, with rave reviews on a highly readable work flowing from the pens of many of those same writers. The ultimate accolade came with an 'highly commended' rating in the Sunday Times publicity awards on a tome which was delightfully original in that it gave fans a platform, including those who sell pies in Wigan! together with past and present stars and the game's luminaries. Greatly encouraged by its success, the publishers have now given 'When Push comes to Shove' a stablemate with the launching of volume two which, like its forerunner, will be a 'must' on the shopping list of Rugby League supporters everywhere at Christmas in particular. Edited jointly by Ian Clayton, of Featherstone fame, playwright and publisher Ian Daley and Rugby League historian Robert Gate, this 136 page profusely illustrated masterpiece is a veritable Aladdin's Cave of oval ball tales, both anecdotal and of more far reaching variety. Priced at £9.95 'When Push comes to Shove' volume two is available from W.H. Smith and other reputable booksellers or post free from publishers Yorkshire Art Circus, School Lane, Glasshoughton, Castleford, West Yorkshire WF10 4QH.

However one reader of this programme can win a copy by correctly answering the following two questions:

1. Who captained Saints against Halifax at Wembley in 1987?
2. Who was Saints leading try scorer last season?

Answers to Rugby League Book competition, St. Helens RFC, Knowsley Road, St. Helens by Monday December 18.

SAINTS IN SUMMER

A first ever cut price family ticket and a savings voucher scheme are the main features of a newly devised St. Helens sales campaign for season passes for the revolutionary 1996 Super League.

Parents purchasing a season pass for the terraces will be eligible to buy a pass for their under 16 children to gain admission for £2 per match, half the normal change.

Saints Chief Executive, David Howes, the architect of the new sales drive, said: "The parent and child discount scheme is designed to reward family units of loyal supporters, providing a 25% total saving on turnstile costs."

St. Helens have printed vouchers valued at £10 and £5 towards the total cost of Super League passes.

Howes explained "The vouchers are the ideal Xmas gift, alternatively being used as a weekly or monthly savings scheme. The voucher can add up to or contribute a portion of, the total cost of the season ticket, which represents traditional good value for the dedicated supporter."

A new extended range of benefits are being offered to Saints' season pass holders for the inaugural Super League campaign, which kicks off at Knowsley Road with a mouth watering Good Friday derby clash with arch rivals Wigan.

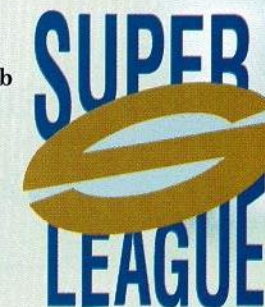

For the first time, passholders will be eligible for two seat tickets per pass for the 1996 Silk Cut Challenge Cup final at Wembley, should Saints qualify.

The Super League pass gains admission to all first team matches, which will be promoted to double headers by being preceded with under 19 Academy games, plus alliance fixtures currently scheduled for Thursday evenings.

There is also priority purchase for Cup ties and a new 5% discount in the Club Shop at Knowsley Road.

"This is a wider range of rewards for the committed fan, the start of a series of initiatives to capitalise on the opening season of summer rugby," added Howes. Admission prices for the 1996 Super League are £12 Adults seats (season pass £115, saving £17), £9 Junior/OAP seats (season pass £85, saving £14), £7 Adult ground (season pass £65, saving £12) and £4 Junior/OAP ground (season pass £35, saving £9). These are the first price increases for three seasons. The parent child scheme is £65 for the Adult ground pass, plus £22 for the under 16.

Further details of season pass bookings and savings vouchers can be obtained from the Secretaries Office or Club Shop at Knowsley Road.

A REQUEST FROM PROFESSOR JOHN ASHTON, REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF HEALTH IN THE NORTH WEST NHS ORGAN DONOR REGISTER

Very few of us will have a transplant, but if we do, we want to make sure a donor organ will be available at our time of need.

Anyone who receives a new organ is entirely dependent on the generosity of individuals who register as organ Donors or carry the Organ Donor card. Thanks to them, some 3,000 people literally received a "gift of life" last year alone.

Sadly their kindness was not enough. Operations that were in the realms of fantasy 30 years ago, such as kidney transplants, are commonplace today. The demand for new organs is greater than ever. Yet the supply has not kept up. Last year there were still some 5,600 people waiting for transplants.

The NHS urgently needs more people to become organ donors. If we can only recruit ten per cent more donors, we could save up to 500 more lives every year.

The best way to become an organ donor is to join the national computer register. This means that if you die the hospital can find out easily whether you wanted to donate - regardless of whether you were carrying the Organ Donor Card at the time.

You can join the register by ringing Freephone 0800 555 777 and asking for the leaflet 'Life - don't keep it to yourself'. Copies should also be available from GP surgeries, local libraries, Post Offices and Citizens' Advice Bureaux.

Professor Ashton agrees with the Department of Health statement, which says that nearly 2 million people have already applied to join the Register but if it is to make the difference we hope for, more people are needed.

Organ donors already give new life to thousands every year. Join the Register today.

RULE CHANGES IN FORCE FROM MONDAY 11 DECEMBER 1995 IN ALL FIRST TEAM, ALLIANCE AND ACADEMY MATCHES

As from Monday 11th December 1995 the following four rule changes will be in force in all First, Alliance and Academy team matches.

- No striking for the ball - penalty will be awarded if the marker strikes.
- The ball to be played backwards at all times - even when there is no marker. If the attacking player makes a break and is tackled, he can play the ball backwards and turn around to pick up the ball and play on. If the marker dives on the ball he will be penalised for a voluntary tackle as previous rules. A penalty will be awarded if the ball is played forward.
- All scrums will be taken from 20m in from touch and not 10m - the Referee will adjudicate where the 20m mark is until all pitches are remarked. No scrum shall be packed closer than 20m to touch line.
- The scoring team restarts play after any score - try, penalty, drop goal.

What do YOU want for Christmas?

There's a group of teenagers and young people in St Helens who, through no fault of their own,
are facing another Christmas
in care.

What they want is a family home

Chester Diocesan Adoption Services

Some of these young people have been in care only a few months. Others are facing another Christmas away from their families.

St Helens Metropolitan Borough Council have teamed up with one of the country's leading adoption organisations to find more couples and individuals who can provide permanent foster homes for these teenagers.

CDAS - Chester Diocesan Adoption Services - brings its own resources and expertise to the partnership which is offering a comprehensive package of training, on-going support and financial help to local people who want to become involved.

Perhaps you could help these young people build a brighter future.

IN SUPPORT

This evening we welcome all our friends from Watersheddings.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

We would like to introduce you to DMA Engineers. DMA was launched in 1983 by enthusiastic engineers. Between them they have the engineering experience and expertise to design, manufacture and assemble to a very high standard, special purpose machinery, mechanical handling equipment and structural steel-work.

They were originally based in Haydock Lane, Haydock, but five years ago moved to a newly acquired premises in Burtonhead Road, St. Helens. This move to bigger property has enabled DMA to expand its workforce and hopefully its order book.

At present a large percentage of work is carried out for locally based companies but more recently orders have been received from companies as far a field as Finland and Taiwan. There is no task too great or small and all are most welcome.

COACHES

We are now taking bookings for the re-arranged match at Castleford on Wednesday 20th December. The coaches will depart from Knowsley Road at 5.30pm. We are also taking bookings for our Boxing Day fixture at Wigan. These coaches will depart from Knowsley Road at 1pm.

CENTENARY SUPERSTAR

ALAN PRESCOTT

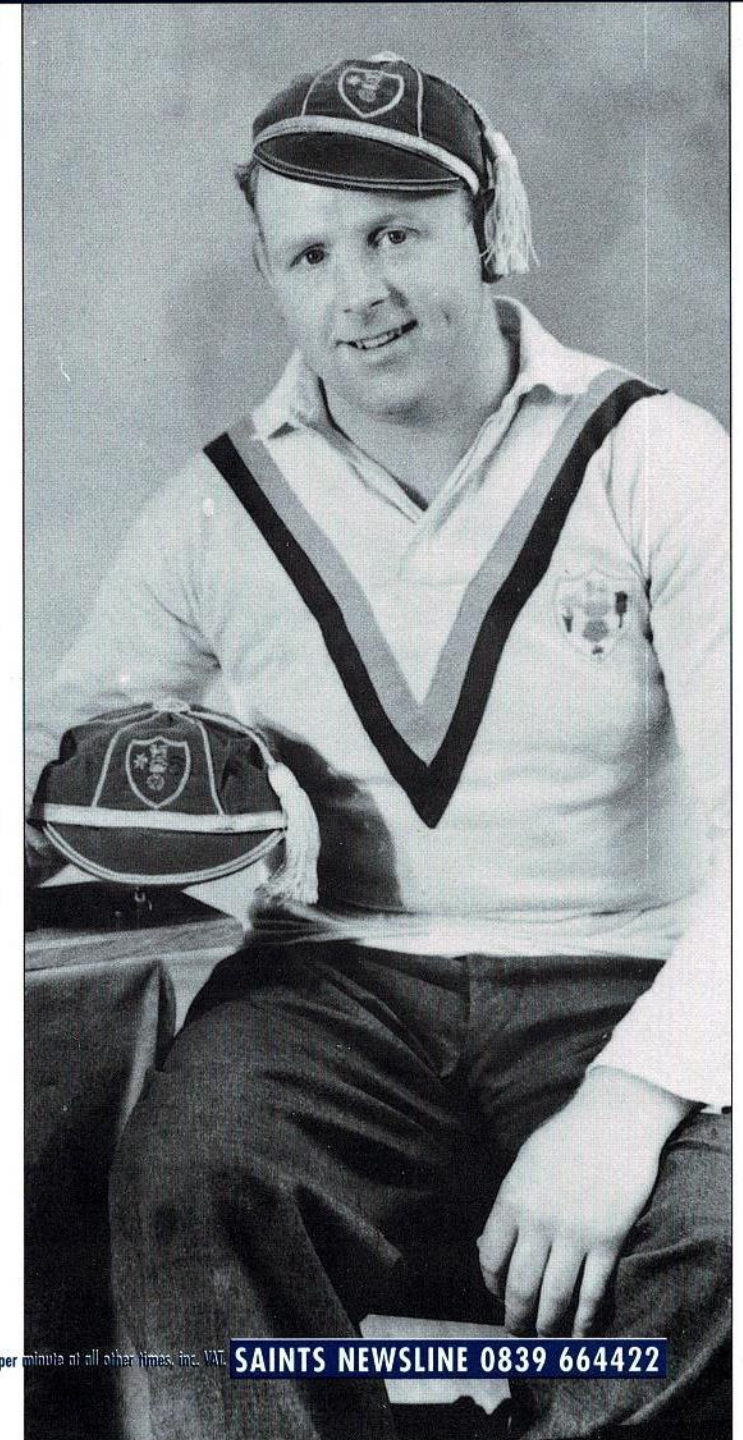

IN PROFILE

A native of Widnes, Alan began his career as a winger with Halifax, before joining the Saints in 1948 as a loose forward. He graduated to the front row and went on to play 28 times for Great Britain from 1951-58. Prescott was the first St. Helens player to lift the Challenge Cup at Wembley, in 1956...a year in which he captained club, county and country! Who could forget the Second Test Match at Brisbane in 1958, when he carried on playing, despite the excruciating pain of a broken wrist. Alan went on to coach the Saints to glory in the 1961 Challenge Cup Final against Wigan...and his achievements are respected wherever rugby league is played!

MYLERS MINUTES

LEEDS ACADEMY 28 SAINTS 29

As they say, 'A win's, a win'. We just about managed that in a game that neither team really dominated, although the first quarter was all Saints. Despite the wet and foggy conditions some very good running rugby was played. Saints early dominance put us ahead 16-6, with tries from Jason Johnson, Carl Turner and Chris Newall, only for Leeds to draw level 16-16 at the break.

The second half was more nip and tuck, Andy Holland going over after good approach work from Brian Capewell. Johnson was switched to stand-off and he linked with Lee Briers to go under the posts untouched 28-24 to Saints (Briers kicked his fourth conversion). Saints' discipline was now shown at its best with measured approach in setting up Briers for the all important drop goal 29-24. Leeds scored in injury time but failed to convert.

Paul Jukes again worked tirelessly in defence, with man of the match Craig Simms outstanding throughout, Tony Stewart, Johnson and Briers also having good all round performances.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Welcome Back Paul
Tonight, we see the return of ace centre Paul Newlove. His partnership with Scott Gibbs could be as good as anything in the game, but don't ignore the claims of Andy Northey. Young Andy is beginning to look the part more than ever and his extra sprint training is beginning to pay off.

Racial Abuse

The Commission for Racial Equality's recent report on racial abuse in Rugby League highlights a problem that we shouldn't tolerate in our game.

At St. Helens, the club has been one of the most determined leaders in bringing respect for the players back to the terraces. Our stewards and police are extremely active in trying to stamp out behaviour problems.

Martin Offiah, in a recent newspaper article singled out Hull, St. Helens and Warrington as being the worst places for racial abuse. If this is true, then we must all work to stamp out this prejudice but to be honest, I feel that Martin misfires by maligning all Saints supporters.

Saints ace Bobbie Goulding himself was recently spat on at an away ground and at another leading club had coins hurled at him as he took a goalkick. This was just plain abuse and certainly not racially inspired. Let's cut it all out.

Perhaps the time has come too for the players themselves to cease antagonising opposition fans with their strutting and nodding. By all means celebrate that's natural, but where does show business stop and mickey taking take over?

If anyone want role models for not going over the top following a score, take a look at Saints threequarters tonight.

Regal Trophy Goes West

Did you see that wonderful televised game from Naughton Park last Saturday. This was full blooded RL at its best and Widnes deserve full credit.

However, according to the opposition coach, the only reason Widnes put up such a good display was because they narrowed the pitch. Never! Who would dare to do that to our friends from over Billinge Hill? Know what I mean 'arry?

Welcome Oldham

Oldham have played some brilliant rugby this season without always having the luck to go with it. They are a much better side than their league position suggests but this is possibly due to coach Andy Goodway's determination to use the Centenary season as an experimental period with this squad.

They have some fine players in Martin Crompton, big hitter

Jason Temu and St. Helens born Darren Abram a try poacher supreme. Following the Regal Trophy tie last Sunday, Saints will have to be at their best to bring home the points tonight.

Flashback - The Regal Trophy

When Halifax took an early lead last Sunday, it looked as if Saints were in for a tough game with the home club downing several chances, but with Bobbie Goulding in top form, the game went out of reach for 'Fax before half time. Quality football from the Saints' saw all the threequarters on the scoring sheet no doubt about it, Saints again lived up to their reputation as the leagues best entertainers. There was nothing wrong either with the Saints packs efforts. Well done Chris Joynt and Co.

Injury Situation - Sully Out

What a tragedy for flying winger Anthony Sullivan to pull a groin muscle against Halifax last Sunday. Sully has been having a great battle with Martin Offiah with his efforts to top the RL's try scoring charts.

Yet out of crisis, came young Danny Arnold to snatch two tries from the wing spot. Not bad for a kid who is still eligible to play academy rugby.

Jon Neill Back?

It would appear that contract rebel Jon Neill is about to return to training. The powerful prop could still figure hugely in Saints' future plans. Give it a go John.

Regal Trophy Semi-Final

I can't believe it! Saints drawn at home again. Warrington of course will be a very tough match and it certainly is a mouth watering prospect.

The Wires have hit some pretty good form themselves of late, and like the Saints they can lick anyone on their day. Also like the St. Helens club, they have a number of exciting youngsters, breaking through to the first team and in Iestyn Harris, they possess one of our games top personalities.

Let's hope that our injury situation clears in time for this important semi-final.

Gamebreaker

One scribe, in the RL press claimed that the game against Halifax went Saints way due to the fact the 'Fax lost Moriarty and Bentley. He completely ignored that Saints too had injuries to Sullivan and Matautia. It just goes to show even journalists can have a one eye view of proceedings.

"I can't believe it! Saints drawn at home again. Warrington of course will be a very tough match and it certainly is a mouth-watering prospect."

TERRACE TALK

ARTHUR RIGBY

MYLER'S MISSION

You only have to talk to Saints' Academy coach John Myler for a few minutes to realise how passionate he is about Rugby League. John is forthright, determined and focused, his mind is clear about what he wants to see from his players.

During a 14 year career with Widnes, Swinton and Leigh, Myler won every medal possible and played at Wembley in the Widnes team that defeated Hull Kingston Rovers in the 1981 Challenge Cup final. I spoke to him this week and asked him about his playing days.

"I started off as a scrum half, which was always my favourite position, then later played at full back before finishing up at loose forward. I had some great years at my home club Widnes when we were christened the Cup Kings. I played alongside some top players like Adams, Elwell, Laughton, Wright and Eric Hughes but I think the player I admired the most was Mike O'Neill, who signed on at the same time as me and still turns out for the Widnes A team."

"In those days we didn't study videos of the opposition or anything like that. We had a terrific team spirit and camaraderie that carried us through. Looking back on my playing days, I'd say by best memory was playing for the GB U24 team against France alongside my brother Tony."

So, I wondered how John had made his way into coaching. "I think it was a natural progression for me to move into coaching. During my playing days I was a thinker and always looking for ways to improve set moves and plays. These days I am a student of the game - a rugby dustbin! Unlike my playing days, I study lots of videos to pick up tips, identify problems or spot weaknesses. Rugby League is like a game of chess - it needs thinking about."

John had been coaching at Widnes when his brother Tony was the head coach. When Tony resigned following a dispute, John followed suit. He contacted his old playing colleague Eric Hughes to register an interest in the vacant Academy post at Knowsley Road, got invited down for a chat and took the job.

There isn't much spare time in John's week these days. He works as a project engineer for a local chemical company and coaches the St. Helens U15 town team in addition to his duties with Saints Academy team. The work with the town team gives him an ideal opportunity to get a close look at some of the budding local talent. John keeps files and notes on promising young players and is involved in the setting up of a structured scouting network, so hopefully no good 'uns will slip through the net and end up at Wigan! I asked John who we should be watching out for from the current Academy team and what he looks for in player. "I don't want to single out any individual as the squad are at different stages of development and at different ages. I'm looking for attributes like technical awareness, good tackling techniques, ability to off-load in the tackle and the ability to think fast and smart. I also expect to see 100% effort and dedication - particularly in training. I always trained as hard as I possibly could. You need to be at the peak of fitness to do yourself justice."

John has some interesting observations on junior rugby. "The sooner the dispute between BARLA and the RFL is sorted out the better. The best young players should be working with professional coaches as soon as possible in order to develop their full potential. The top Aussie clubs, like the Canberra Raiders, have junior teams from 13 years upwards playing in the same style as the first graders. Our schoolkids play far too many matches which can be really bad. For example last season my 11 year old son played 68 games in all - 3 a week. We are also losing too many players between the ages of 13-16 to other interests - we need to keep them playing Rugby League."

"The main purpose of my job at Saints is to get promising young players into good habits and prepare them to step up to the first team. We've got half a dozen who could make it. Whether they will or not is up to them. They have to ask themselves "How ambitious am I? Am I single minded enough? Only time will tell."
