OLDHAM FOOTBALL CLUB – On Thursday evening the annual dinner of this club took place at the Borough Restaurant Mumps, kept by Mr J. Stocks. About 50 members of the club and their friends partook of dinner. The company afterwards adjourned into the Friendship Hotel, where the convivialities were held. Mr W. M. Rye, vice president of the club presided. The usual loyal and patriotic toasts having been given, Mr Mayall proposed "The Town and Trade of Oldham", to which Mr Holroyd responded.

Mr Mounsey gave "The Oldham Football Club", coupling with the toast the names of Mr Wild and Mr Fletcher the secretaries. He remarked that few clubs held out such fair promise for the future, or had been so successful in the past, seeing that it was only established the season before last.
