A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

WELCOME back to Bower Fold for the second instalment of this month's trilogy.

Last Sunday, in our first home game for two months, we gave a much better performance than we had in previous weeks and we were disappointed not to win against a Hull KR team which is five points clear at the top of the table.

That we were disappointed says a lot about how we tend to play against the top sides at home and we need to build on the good aspects of that performance to try to get a win today against Halifax.

Halifax have demonstrated over the last few years that they are a very good Championship side and they underlined that with a fantastic result away at Sheffield last week.

I repeat, however, what I have said many times over the years; we only need to worry about ourselves.

When we stick to Scott's instructions and play to the best of our ability we are a very good team.

There is no doubt that the last few weeks have been difficult, but it amazes me that people talk of a crisis. If people in my position reacted the way some others do when things aren't going our way, then we would be changing things from top to bottom every week. People would then be calling for stability!

As a club we have always stuck to our ideas because we have faith in them and the people (coaches and players) who carry them out.

That is the greatest faith that you can show in people who are entrusted with a massive amount of responsibility upon which the club sinks or swims . I am certainly NOT losing faith. People have short memories at times and it is part of my role to ensure I keep a level head. I will. Having said that, nobody hides when things are not going to plan and again that is due to the characters we have involved at the club. Another deliberate choice. We have a lot going for us as a club and it saddens me sometimes that not enough people in Oldham recognise it. Certainly, people from other clubs do. A sign of the times I suppose.

There is nothing better than fighting for all you are worth when things are going against you either individually or as a club and, believe you me, we are kicking and screaming right now as we fight our way out of the present run of no wins in five.

I know I have mentioned this many times but the support from those of you who made the effort to be at the game last Sunday was outstanding, both in the level of noise generated and the way it carried on throughout the match.

We aren't far off and when we do get that next win you will all have played your part in it.

Scott is back in his usual role from today and that will also lift the lads.

Enjoy the match,

Christopher Hamilton Chairman

Oldham Rugby League Football Club

TOUCHLINE TOPICS by Scott Naylor

HELLO everyone and welcome to today's game against Halifax here at Bower Fold.

Our opponents come to us hugely confident after destroying Sheffield Eagles away 54-0 last week in what must have been a top-notch performance.

They are now sitting pretty in fifth position in the Kingstone Press Championship and pushing hard for inclusion in the Middle 8s play-offs.

When we played Halifax at The Shay on Easter Monday night it was a closely-fought game which finished 16-14 to them, but we could have easily taken the win home with us from their place so we know that a win is possible today here on our home pitch.

If our performance is similar to the one we produced last week here against Hull Kingston Rovers then it's a definite possibility.

It is clearly obvious that we enjoy playing here at Bower Fold and having five of our last seven games of the regular Championship season here -- before the start of the Shield --- is a massive boost for the lads.

Nevertheless, we need to start to pick up points on the table before the league campaign ends with the visit of Rochdale Hornets on July 23, followed by the Shield play-offs which start in August.

Our aim is to finish in a positive position and higher in the table than last season, which would be an improvement for the fifth year in a row and would cement our standing and our reputation as a genuine Championship team.

Many thanks for your continued support and your terrific vocal backing against Hull KR last week. The boys really appreciate that and it genuinely does make a big difference,

Enjoy the game and don't forget we are back here again on Wednesday night when we play the match against Dewsbury Rams (8pm kick-off) which was postponed in early March because the ground was waterlogged.

Hope to see you all again on Wednesday,

Many thanks, Scott

OUR JOE IS A WORLD CUP HOPEFUL ...

ACCORDING to the Wales RL website, our prop Joe Burke is one of 32 contenders to represent their country in the 2017 World Cup, to be played out later this year in Australia and New Zealand.

The 32 includes nine forwards who are all billed as props --- Joe Burke (OLDHAM), Craig Kopczak (Salford), Matty Barron (Newcastle), Jake Emmitt (Toronto), Dan Fleming (Toronto), Anthony Walker (Wakefield), Izaak Duffy (South Wales), Morgan Evans (South Wales), Sam Hopkins (Leigh).

Kopczak has most caps, 19, and Joe is next with 11, two more than thirdplaced Barron of Thunder.

Newport-born Joe (27) has played in 14 of our 18 games this season in all competitions, scoring four tries, more than any other forward apart from Michael Ward, who has touched down five times. He made his Welsh debut in 2010 and with 11 caps to his name he is one of the Principality's most experienced forwards internationally.

Of his prospects of making the trip of a lifetime Down Under on World Cup duty, Joe said: "At the moment it's just a waiting game. Nobody knows.

"There's still a lot of rugby to be played in the domestic season and my only thoughts at present concern doing my best for Oldham. If, in the course of that, I can put myself up for Welsh selection again that would be great.

"Anything can happen. I'll just do what I've always done, which is to concentrate on my club rugby and anything else will take care of itself."

Joe's sharp support play enabled him to capitalise on Scott Leatherbarrow's early break against Hull KR last week and register his fourth try of the season in a team performance that was the best for several weeks.

"We proved to ourselves that we could hack it with the top team in the competition," he said.

"We went back to basics, stopped making lots of mistakes and proved that we can play a lot better than we have been doing.

"We were less panicky; we stuck to the game plan; and we cut out the errors.

"Taking it one game at a time, the focus has to be on us - and what we do - rather than what our opponents might or might not do."

Support ORSA and you support your team

ORSA (Oldham Roughyeds' Supporters Association) continues to play an important role in funding squadassociated events or requirements and its latest contribution was to pay for last week's player-bonding evening at the town-centre restaurant of Gourmet Burger Kitchen, one of our corporate partners.

The players, headed by captain Gareth Owen and vice-captain Sammy Gee, have since expressed their gratitude to ORSA officials and confirmed what Scott had already said; that bonding sessions like that are extremely helpful and beneficial, especially in the middle of a long, hard season.

Coaching staff and squad are always appreciative of ORSA's backing which includes sponsorship of Scott Turner and Liam Thompson; paying for gym equipment; providing nutritional needs, including special requirements for the trip to Toulouse in April.

Next up for ORSA is a big day on Sunday, July 9 when Featherstone Rovers come to Bower Fold and the association will be putting on one of their popular buffets and general matchday hospitality in the sponsors' lounge, doing all they can before, at half-time and after the match to make your Roughyeds experience as comfortable and as eniovable as possible.

For season-ticket holders its only £10; for everyone else its £25, but that includes your admission to the game, whether you require a main-stand seat or you prefer to stand.

Book early to avoid disappointment by ringing John McAndrew on 07980129541 or Paul Hulbert on 07534329674.

ORSA is also in need of more members (£10 a year from August 1) or support from anyone who would like to make a donation or help out on match days by engaging with fellow fans.

If that's for you speak to John, the chairman, whose number is given above or to Grant Somerville, the secretary, on (01706) 844810.

SPONSORS, fans, invited guests and friends of the club got together with Maggie's Oldham at Gourmet Burger Kitchen, Parliament Square to launch a unique fund-raiser. 'Superdraw 2017' will support Oldham RLFC Community Trust and Maggie's cancer support centre, to open on June 9 at the Royal Oldham Hospital.

To recognise our 20th anniversary, the club has donated its 2017 main kit sponsorship to Maggie's to raise awareness.

Draw tickets are £100 each, but the first prize --- 2018 Oldham RLFC kit sponsorship --- is alone worth £10,000.

Other prizes include a 2018 kit sponsorship worth £5,000; match sponsorship for ten (£600); similar for six (£400); a family season ticket, £400; signed Oldham shirt; signed Oldham ball; and others.

Among guests at the launch were Mike Flanagan, manager of Spindles Town Square Shopping Centre; Ian Milligan, chief executive of Stalybridge Celtic; Roughyeds fan Rob Nixon (61), who ran the Manchester Marathon for Maggie's and hopes to do the London marathon next year.

Our chairman Chris Hamilton said: "We are proud to strike a partnership with Maggie's. Few people are not affected by cancer and the centre will provide marvellous support for the community." Laura Tomlinson of Maggie's added: "We'll do a few events for the community during the week beginning June 12."

The Stoller Charitable Trust has fully funded the building of the centre, but the running of it relies solely on voluntary donations and fundraising.

KINGSTON ROVERS June 11 2017

THE children of Mayfield Primary School, Derker will be playing tagrugby before today's game, after which the boys and girls will become player escorts as the Oldham and Halifax teams leave the tunnel.

They've been playing tag rugby at Mayfield since 2015 and have made good progress, reaching the semi-finals of the Oldham Schools' Cup for two years running.

The school is now working with Oldham St Anne's ARLFC to promote rugby league and to develop the children in areas such as core skills, discipline and team work. From September, the school is also hoping to run a relevant afterschool club.

The school would like to thank Oldham RLFC for providing their tag-rugby children with these oppotunities.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY

Despite defeat, our game against Tim Sheens's Hull KR last week was an absolute cracker. Interesting, therefore, to read what the papers had to say:

HULL DAILY MAIL: Alarm bells were ringing loud and clear for Hull KR in the early stages... they eventually recovered, but not convincingly.

HULL DAILY MAIL: At 32-18 Oldham were far from out of the battle as McIntosh crossed in the corner. The hosts chased the game in the last ten minutes but a lack of game management saw their numerous opportunities go to waste.

OLDHAM EVENING CHRONICLE: This was the old Oldham; the side built on a bedrock of pride and passion... fans were shouting from the rooftops, buoyed by the best and most spirited all-round effort for several weeks... the halves were central to everything Oldham did well, playing behind a pack that was strong and resolute.

LEAGUE EXPRESS (lan Wilson):

Oldham were unrecognisable from the confidence-sapped outfit of the last few weeks and their three early scores showed a variety of skills... the overriding feeling was of quality entertainment provided by committed and skilful athletes.

LEAGUE WEEKLY (Roy Craig): For the first half hour Oldham built on their astonishing, whirlwind start to command most of the momentum . . . they thrilled their fans with a massive team effort which indicated they would be strong enough to cling to their 18-0 lead to half-time. It wasn't to be.

So there you have it ... not bad eh !

INFO FROM AROUND THE CHAMPIONSHIP

HALIFAX: Connor Robinson is heading to York because he has had a promotion at work and needs to play for a club nearer home.

- ROCHDALE: Hooker or half-back Lewis Foster, who had a spell on loan with us last season, has signed for Hornets from Leigh on loan to the end of the season.
- DEWSBURY: The Rams have snapped up three on loan --- Sam Day, Daniel Igbinedion and Billy Hayes.
- HULL KR: He didn't play here last Sunday, but Rovers have signed Oldhamer Lee Jewitt, the former Salford and Castleford forward.
- TOULOUSE: Star stand-off Jonathan Ford, currently injured, is unlikely to play again until the Middle 8s.
- OLDHAM: At the time of going to press, Roughyeds were hoping to extend Liam Bent's loan agreement with Salford.
- BRADFORD: Leeds Rhinos quartet Mikolaj Oledzki, Jordan Lilley, Sam Hallas and Cameron Smith are staying at Bulls on Ioan on a week-to-week-basis.
- SHEFFIELD: Winger Garry Lo, top Championship try scorer with 21, is playing despite needing a knee injury.
- SWINTON: The Lions are hoping to sign a Super League forward on loan.
- OLDHAM: Don't forget we're back here on Wednesday (8pm) in a rearranged game against Dewsbury Rams.

Our Visitors Halifax RLFC

Break-away league leaders Hull KR look certain to claim one of the available positions and therefore Halifax need to keep up with the chasing pack of Toulouse, London and Featherstone.

After 17 games played, the men from the MBi Shay sit in fifth place, only three points short of the leading pack. This leaves just six games of the regular season to make up the difference making each one a virtual cup-tie.

Halifax last appeared in the middle-eights in 2015 after finishing fourth over the first 23 games. Despite being the lowest ranked team in the competition, and part time, they beat promotion favourites Leigh and Sheffield Eagles to finish 6th out of 8 securing improved central funding for 2016.

The conclusion of the 2016 season saw the departure of forwards Dane Manning and Sam Smeaton to Batley Bulldogs but the return of winger Rob Worrincy from Sheffield Eagles gave the squad a welcome boost.

Oldham and Halifax last met on Easter Monday this year. The evening tie over in Yorkshire was a close-run affair finishing 16-14 to hosts. Leading 6-0 at half-time, Halifax extended their lead to 14-0 before Oldham launched a spirited comeback and could have taken the spoils in the final minute but for a disallowed Adam Clay try.

In last week's game. Halifax handed out a 54-0 ten try beating to Sheffield Eagles at Wakefield's Beaumont Legal Stadium, Coming off the back of consecutive defeats to Toulouse and London, a close game was expected but the Eagles had no answer to Richard Marshall's young team. Hat-trick hero Conor McGrath and man-of-thematch James Woodburn-Hall were the stand-out players.

Oldham failed to take points off Halifax in 2016, playing them three times over the 30 game season. The points on offer today are vital to both sides and with each putting in great performances last Sunday, an exciting game should play-out here at Bower Fold.

Three to watch Halifax

Scott Murrell

Son of former Leeds full-back Bryan Murrell, the Halifax half-back began his playing career at Leeds.

A 2006 move to Hull Kingston Rovers saw him score 240 points for the Robins in 178 appearances.

Moved to Halifax in 2013 and is the current club captain.

Rob Worrincy

Vastly experienced winger who can name Castleford Tigers and Sheffield Eagles as former clubs.

A prolific try scorer, the player returned to Fax at the start of this season and has been a regular in the side.

Jacob Fairbank

Halifax born and the nephew of the former Bradford player Karl Fairbank.

A prop or second-rower, Jacob came through the Huddersfield Giants youth system.

Loan spells at several clubs have added to the players experience, including a game for Oldham in our 2015 promotion year.

SPOT the punter !

More than 20 fans went to Chester Races last Saturday as part of the 20th birthday celebrations of Oldham RLFC (1997) Ltd and a good time was had by all.

Everybody enjoyed the racing and socialising at a beautiful little course immediately outside the city wall and nobody more so than Les Davison (pictured foreground), who followed up his success in picking winners at Belle Vue Greyhounds a few weeks ago by topping the Oldham Rugby winners' table here as well.

While it was a great day out, though, it was generally agreed that for excitement, tension and atmosphere it didn't get anywhere near matching the thrills and spills of the Oldham v Hull KR game the next day.

If today's game against Halifax and Wednesday's Bower Fold clash against Dewsbury Rams (8pm) are half as good we'll be in for a trio of rugby league treats inside ten days.
