A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

WELCOME back, once again, to Bower Fold for another home fixture against a top-four side.

Seven days ago we silenced the doom-and-gloom merchants for a short while by beating Toulouse Olympique to end a run of eight matches without a win.

Bizarrely, it was probably more against the odds than in the previous eight games because we had a very young team out, including half-backs who were aged 19 and 21.

To get that win, in the manner we did, removed several monkeys off our back in one fell swoop!

We worked our socks off from the first minute to the last and while the margin was never great we showed a lot of confidence in order to complete the job.

What was particularly pleasing was the atmosphere we created in the ground. The diehards have remained right behind the team and on Sunday the noise they generated was like nothing else. I've said for a long time that fans do make a difference to the lads and it was never more demonstrated than last Sunday.

We face a potentially even harder task today against a Featherstone side who are in good form and who have a squad packed with quality. We beat them here last season but if we are to do it again we will need to put in another effort like last week.

Our injury woes continued last Sunday with Adam Neal breaking his jaw and this merely adds to what was already a large injury list.

Things are certainly hotting up as we head towards the end of the normal season and we continue to look to strengthen the squad.

It's not easy, however, and you'd be surprised sometimes how hard it is - not only to identify players but to get them out of clubs, particularly on a permanent basis.

Matty Wilkinson, who made a big impression on his debut last week, is a good example of patience paying off and hopefully we can make some more additions before the signing deadline on the 21st of this month. If you know of anybody let me know!

Back to today and please keep up your tremendous support. It is appreciated more than you will ever know.

Enjoy the game,
Christopher Hamilton,
Chairman,
Oldham Rugby League
Football Club.

TOUCHLINE TOPICS

by Scott Naylor

HELLO everyone and welcome to today's game against Featherstone Rovers here at Bower Fold.

Our opponents today are pushing for top-four certainty in the league so as to qualify to play in the Middle 8s in August and September.

As a consequence, every game for them is hugely important and today's is no exception.

Our previous league meeting at Featherstone resulted in an extremely close game which we lost by two points. We were unfortunate not to get anything out of it.

We performed well in terrible conditions and nearly pinched a draw at the end to come away from Featherstone with a rare point, which few teams have managed this season.

We need to be at our best today and we need to take last week's result against Toulouse Olympique into this game and come up with another intense and passionate performance, like the one we produced seven days ago, to maintain the positive feeling around the club.

It has been a strange couple of months. Results have been disappointing but in reality there hasn't been much wrong with the team.

We have been either in front or drawing at half time in six of our last nine games, but we haven't managed to close them out and get the wins that we deserved in many of them.

Last week we looked different. We looked calm and confident in ourselves. We looked like a team that could beat anyone and for once this season we got what we deserved.

We need to be in the same mood today in order to beat Featherstone and keep putting points on the table so that we can look up, not down, for the rest of the campaign.

Many thanks

Oh, what joy! What a difference a win makes!

DESCRIBED by club chairman Chris Hamilton as our 18th-man, joyful fans are captured here celebrating our 14-12 win over Toulouse Olympique with Luke Adamson and Sammy Gee.

This picture by our club photographer DAVE MURGATROYD aptly sums up the mood of fans and players alike following a tremendous team performance in which every man played his part.

Tries by full-back Steve Nield, who once won a clubman-of-the-year award for his work behind the scenes during a long injury spell, and George Tyson, plus three goals by David Hewitt, did the trick.

A side that went into battle without TEN senior players, and including half a dozen players who were 21 or under, was willed over the line by fans with good lungs.

Said Chris: "Our supporters were absolutely fantastic in the vocal backing they gave the team.

"We had 18 men out there, no doubt about that. We always knew they would be 'loud and proud' but what they did to lift the team, particularly at times when encouragement was needed, was something else.

"They've never wavered right through our difficult spell, but thankfully they got some reward. This win was for them, as well as for everyone else at the club."

Liam Moore steps up to full-time Match Officials Team

THE Rugby Football League is delighted to announce that Liam Moore has joined the full-time Match Officials Team.

Since 2012, the 21-year-old Grade 1 referee has overseen the 2013 Champion Schools final at Wembley Stadium; made his Super League touch-judge debut in 2014;; officiated in League 1 and Championship; and was a touch-judge at England's international Test against France last year in Avignon.

On his full-time appointment, Moore, said: "It's something I've always wanted to do since starting as a 16-year-old in the North West Counties League and working my way through Champion Schools, Academy games and the National Conference.

"The training is intense as a full-time referee and our fitness levels need to be constantly maintained as we're keeping up with professional athletes every week.

"Phil Bentham was my manager a couple of seasons ago so I've always looked up to him as someone who is experienced and who has officiated the big games.

"I'm proof that if you work hard you can get these opportunities to join this group. There are more like me who will be knocking on the door soon."

Head of Match Officials at the Rugby Football League, Steve Ganson, said: "This is a fantastic chance for Liam to take the next step in his career and establish himself as a regular full-time Match Official.

"He has already gained plenty of experience working in Betfred Super League, Kingstone Press Championship and League 1 and more recently as touch-judge at the Warrington v Wigan Ladbrokes Challenge Cup quarter-final.

"Our development programme is producing quality young match officials and demonstrates that there is a career pathway for anyone interested in joining the Match Officials Team."

Richard Lepori ... had a scan this week on his damaged ankle

THINGS ON THE MEND IN THE CASUALTY CLEARING STATION

OUR latest casualty is Adam Neal with his broken jaw (best wishes to Adam for a speedy recovery), but things generally seem to be on the mend in the medical room with encouraging reports coming out of the progress being made by Phil Joy and Craig Briscoe (long term) and, more immediately, by Danny Grimshaw, Scott Turner, Gareth Owen, Jack Spencer and Scott Leatherbarrow.

Phil won't play again this season, of course, but the surgeon is delighted with the progress he has made since he had his shoulder operation and he has been given the go-ahead to start the first phase of his rehab.

Craig is continuing to work hard behind the scenes and he is on schedule to play again before the end of the season.

There was a chance that Danny and Scott (Turner) might be okay for today, while 'Gaz', Jack and Scott (Leatherbarrow) might have a chance of being ready for Sheffield next week.

Richard Lepori had a scan on his ankle this week so by the time you read this we should know the results.

The 'W' force - Wilkinson, Williams - are the latest to boost our squad for the run-in

FOLLOWING on from the loan signings of London Broncos duo Kameron Pearce-Paul and Sadiq 'Sid' Adebisi, we further strengthened our squad for the business end of the season with the capture of two more young players, each with Super League backgrounds at Salford Red Devils.

Hooker Matty Wilkinson (21), who made an excellent debut last week against Toulouse Olympique, has penned a contract to November 30 after negotiating his release from Salford, where he had been since he was 17 and, for the last two years, as a full-time pro.

Connor Williams (18), a full-back or centre, comes from Salford on a one-month loan - another bright prospect who has been full-time with the Red Devils since he was 16.

Connor wasn't well in the build-up to the Toulouse game so he wasn't available for that, but he joined us this Tuesday as the new kid on the block so a big Roughyeds welcome to both Connor and Matty.

"To bring in new blood at this stage of the season is important," said Scott Naylor.

Wilkinson has been on dual-reg with Halifax this season and he played against us, as a substitute, when Fax won at Bower Fold on June 18.

He got his release from the Red Devils to take up a full-time job outside rugby and we then nipped in ahead of Halifax to nail his signing for the next five months.

Added Scott: "We jumped at the chance to bring him in when the opportunity arose. He's keen, fresh and of the right age.

"He's a good, young hooker who's been brought up in a Super League environment and he did well for Halifax on dual-reg."

Of teenager Williams, he said: "He plays equally well at full-back or centre and there aren't many centres about these days.

"We've had a few injury problems in those two positions, so it made commonsense to bring him in, give him some game time and have a look at him."

A Wigan lad, he played for St Cuthbert's and St Jude's before getting scouted by Salford, for whom he made his Super League debut against Wigan when he was 17.

Leigh-born Wilkinson had a year with the Centurions

before leaving to join Salford when he was 17. He's also played rugby union with Sale.

"Halifax wanted to sign me, but it suited all parties for me to come to Oldham, and I'm delighted to be here," said Wilkinson.

"I know George Tyson and Ben Davies pretty well and I can't wait to get involved with the big challenges that lie ahead.

"When I played at Bower Fold recently on dual-reg for Halifax we all thought, to be honest, that Oldham should have won and I think they would have done if Scott Leatherbarrow's 'try' had been given when it was all square at 12-12."

We fielded a very young side against Toulouse with dual-reg Sam Wood (19) and Dave Hewitt (21) at half-back; Kameron Pearce-Paul (20) on the left wing; and Matty Wilkinson (21), Sadiq Adebiyi (20) and Liam Bent (19) coming off the bench. All six did very well indeed.

The Broncos boys were on home debut, after playing their first games for us at Bradford the week before, while Matty Wilkinson played his first game in the Roughyeds' red and white, off the bench, and impressed with his lively work from dummy half.

Every single member of the 17 played his heart out with 'Sid' Adebiyi playing like a pocket battleship with his strong drives into enemy territory.

Our Visitors

Featherstone Rovers

Today sees our third 2017 encounter with the men from the LD Nutrition Stadium.

Oldham visited the historic rugby league ground on Post Office Road in Round 2 of this year's Championship. A mud-bath of a pitch meant a battle of the forwards was the order of the day but Rovers ran out 8-6 winners.

Luckless Oldham watched in anguish as an attempted score-levelling kick sailed wide of the posts. Many observers felt that the Roughyeds had deserved at least a draw.

Round 5 of the Ladbrokes Challenge Cup saw Oldham make a second journey over to West Yorkshire but the winning margin was wider on this occasion. Featherstone powered their way to Round 6 in a 32-4 victory.

Proudly occupying third place in the latest Kingstone Press Championship table, Featherstone are hot on the heels of London Broncos; only one point separates the two teams. A place in the middle-eight qualifiers is the prize on offer and with only three regular season games remaining, maximum points will be sought to ensure games against Super League opposition for a second successive season.

Coach Jon Sharp has added to his squad in recent weeks with the addition of Daniel Igbinedion from Castleford Tigers and the return of Jamie Cording, a player recovered from a career-threatening cruciate ligament injury.

Last time out saw Featherstone take on Batley Bulldogs. A physical game ensued which saw 33 penalties and three sin-binnings. Leading 16-10 at half-time, Rovers were able to amass 14 unanswered second-half points while down to 12 men and this spell laid the platform for the final scoreline of 42-14 and a home win for Rovers.

Today's teams last met at Bower Fold in 2016 when Oldham won 16-14. A repeat performance would suit Oldham's table climbing aim whereas Featherstone will look to avenge last season's defeat and press on to the Qualifiers. A great game should be played out this afternoon.

Three to watch

Featherstone Rovers

Chis Ulugia

25yr old Australian three-quarter who arrived in the UK from Queensland's Mackay Cutters.

Signed for Bradford Bulls on a two year deal but went on to enjoy a spell with Batley Bulldogs.

Impressive displays in Batley's great 2016 season earned him a move to Featherstone in 2017.

Scott Turner

Aged 28, Turner began his professional career in 2010, signing for Dewsbury Rams.

The winger moved to Sheffield Eagles in 2012 and enjoyed four successful seasons in South Yorkshire before transferring to Rovers at the start of 2016.

Scored a brace of tries in the first 14 minutes in the Featherstone win over Batley Bulldogs last weekend.

Ian Hardman

One of Rovers' longest serving players, full-back Hardman is currently enjoying his testimonial year at the LD Nutrition Stadium.

Began his career at St Helens before spending time with Hull KR and Widnes.

Since his debut for Rovers in 2009, has notched up over 200 appearances for today's visitors.

A ROLLER-COASTER IN PROSPECT - don't miss it

THE next two months promise to be an exciting and very important period for our club as we and several rivals jostle for position towards the end of the regular season and then into the seven-game Shield matches which all count towards final places in the Kingstone Press Championship.

A glance at the current league table shows how tight everything is with only two points separating Dewsbury Rams in eighth place, Rochdale (ninth), OLDHAM (tenth) and Swinton (11th).

The division, in fact, can be split into four distinct groups.

Hull KR, London and Featherstone, our visitors today, have to be fancied for appearances in the Middle 8s come the end of the regular season.

Toulouse and Halifax are battling it out for the fourth and final Middle 8s spot.

Either of those, plus Batley and Sheffield, look certain to finish in the Championship's Middle 4, leaving one place there up for grabs between Dewsbury, Rochdale, OLDHAM and Swinton.

It's a measure of how competitive it is in the lower end of the table that one of those clubs will finish in the Middle 4s and the others will be battling hard to finish outside the bottom two, with all that entails.

We will all be meeting in the Shield which means we still have to play Rochdale twice and Swinton once -- three derby battles that promise to be real humdingers.

The Hornets, in fact, are our next visitors to Bower Fold on Sunday, July 23 ---- definitely one not to be missed ---- so if you can make a special effort to attend and perhaps bring along a friend, relative or work mate to join the 'loud and proud' brigade that would be much appreciated and would also help to lift the team.
