A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to Bower Fold for this afternoon's match against the Bradford Bulls.

Whilst the Bulls have their own problems and the prospect of relegation to League One has, in reality, been on the cards for some time, our own situation is not improved by us not being able to do the basics.

Last week, again, at Sheffield we handed the advantage to the home side early on by making a number of simple handling errors that gave both possession and field position to our opponents and, on the back of that, they scored points that made it very hard to have a chance of winning.

The very least that you and I as supporters should expect each week is that the 17 people in the Oldham shirt go out and show some fire in their bellies. We had a number of players who sadly last week, didn't do that.

The beauty of sport though is that you get an opportunity in the next game to put that right and today is that day. Today is the day when from 1-17 they have to scrap and fight and run and tackle like their lives depend on it. You can be the world's worst rugby player but still have 100% determination in you to give your all in a match.

Nothing less will be accepted. The club is in a serious position as the league table shows and there are only six matches left in which we can turn it around.

Nobody at the club wanted to be in this position at the beginning of the season but only the players can get us out of it. It's no use feeling sorry for ourselves or pointing to injuries right now. What is needed is a collective determination to get the results that will move us up the table.

The more senior players in the team need to stand up and show the younger lads the way forward both in terms of what they say but more importantly by what they do.

It's all about what happens on the pitch for 80 minutes on a Sunday and the sooner we roll our sleeves up and get stuck in the better.

The support over at Wakefield last week deserved better and hopefully today we will give you plenty to shout about.

The only saving grace last week was that other results went in our favour but let's not rely on others, we need to get ourselves out of the current position starting today.

Last week was interesting in that it again underlined the reasons why the "8s" were brought in. London Broncos putting up a great fight against the Catalan Dragons and Halifax, who only got into that 4th spot in our division on the last day of the season, had a real dig against Hull KR.

The Leeds/Wigan match was also played at a different intensity and I, for one, am fully behind the concept and hope that others don't feel a need to change things.

Please continue to keep behind the lads. We all do appreciate it.

Enjoy the game.

TOUCHLINE TOPICS

by Scott Naylor

Hello everyone and welcome to today's game against the Bradford Bulls at Bower Fold.

I'd like to start by talking about the Bulls and the news that they were relegated to League One last week after losing to Toulouse Olympique at Odsal. I personally find it ridiculous that such a great club 15 years ago, with the best team in the WORLD, is now two divisions lower when the teams they were beating (Wigan, Leeds, St.Helens) in that era are still challenging for the Grand Final in October.

I feel for the fans who were absolutely outstanding through the nineties and onwards to today's game. They have seen their club fall through the divisions and now have to get ready for the long distance support that League One forces them to do as our fans did for the first three years of my time here.

I suppose that shows what we've done with this club in five years. When we got together in 2012, Oldham had finished 7th in League One and were struggling to say the least. Two grand finals, one promotion and staying in the division shows progress but also reminds you how tough it is in this division when we find ourselves again fighting for safety to continue our journey in the Championship division.

It's going to be a tough six weeks but we have to give everything and fight for the fans and the club to ensure we don't play the Bulls next season in League One. We deserve to be in this division because we do things the right way and are a club trying to improve on and off the field.

We need to FIGHT!!!!!!

Batley Bulldogs - In The Pink Weekend

On Sunday, August 20, 2017, Oldham play Batley Bulldogs at The Fox's Biscuits Stadium in round 3 of the Kingstone Press Championship Shield. The game will be played during Batley's annual pink weekend and the Bulldogs would like to extend an invitation for Oldham fans to join in.

In 2014 Batley Bulldogs held their first pink weekend raising money for breast-cancer charities. In the following years, they have raised a total of £30,000 through this annual event and every penny has been donated to the charities.

The weekend usually starts on Friday with pink afternoon tea and then on Saturday there are activities for all the family. The main day is Sunday when the club asks people to come wearing something pink, the Batley players play in a special pink kit which is immediately sold after the match.

There will be entertainment before and after the match, inflatable slides for the children, tombola stalls etc and a 'bucking stool' where fans can, for a small donation, 'duck' various officials including referees.

Also this year the Batley chairman, Kevin Nicholas, and 4 others will be walking from Leeds to Wembley arriving in time for the Challenge Cup Final, raising additional monies for the charities.

On the morning of Saturday, August

26, 120 Batley fans, all wearing Pink tee shirts will be joining in the last 10 kilometres from the London Broncos ground to Wembley, again raising much-needed monies.

Everyone knows someone who has been affected by breast cancer, whether it be a partner, a mother, a grandmother, a friend or a friend of a friend and the more we can support these the worthy causes then hopefully one day a cure will be found.

Please come and enjoy the day and if possible wear something pink. There will be 50p off any drinks bought before 2pm and hopefully, the sun will shine.

Forward star Little thrilled Oldham crowds

OLDHAM rugby league great Sid Little OBE has died at the age 87.

A native of Kirkbride, Cumberland, but brought up in nearby Burgh-by-Sands, the former RAF pilot joined Oldham during the 1951-52 season, having previously played rugby union for both Harlequins and the Cumberland county side.

On his arrival in Oldham, he and his wife Valerie, the daughter of Oldham's stalwart loose forward and Welsh Rugby Union international Emlyn Watkins, lived in Werneth, before moving to Moorside, where they stayed until Little's position as a company director required a move to the Midlands.

A devastating, running second row forward, he formed a tremendous back row partnership with Charlie Winslade in the entertaining Oldham side of the 1950s.

His talents were recognised by the rugby league selectors, the pinnacle of his international career was scoring a try against the 1956 touring Australians in the third and final Test at Swinton.

This not only equalled the biggest margin of victory for the British against the Kangaroos in an Ashes Test, 19-0, but both sealed the series 2-1 while at the same time regaining the Ashes. This was the commencement of 10 consecutive international appearances for Little, interestingly most of them at prop forward.

He represented Great Britain in the 1957 World Cup played in Australia and in which the British were runners-up to the home side. He also played in four promotional matches under the banner Great Britain XIII against the French. Three of these were played in South Africa and the other in New Zealand.

Including two promotional matches in Australia against Western Australia and Queensland, Little played in a massive 58 competitive matches during the 1957-58 season. Along with his Oldham team-mates Derek Turner, Frank Pitchford, Ken Jackson, and Alan Davies, Sid was then selected for the 1958 tour to Australia, but due to his wife Valerie expecting a family addition, declined the invitation.

While at Watersheddings, Little, who also represented Cumberland at rugby league, played 249 times for Oldham scoring 49 tries.

Included in these statistics are the three consecutive Lancashire Cup final victories against St Helens in 1956, Wigan in 1957, St Helens again in 1958, Hull in the 1957 Championship final plus the defeat to Barrow in the 1954 Lancashire Cup final and Warrington in the 1955 Championship final.

The season 1957-58 saw Oldham top the league,

winning 33 and drawing one of their 38 league games. Little, a member of the Oldham Rugby League Hall of Fame, also played for the Cumberland county rugby league side on eight occasions.

At the end of the 1958-59 season, he hung up his boots in the Watersheddings' pavilion changing rooms for the last time.

In December, 1982 he was awarded an OBE for his services to the Air Training Corps, Staffordshire, which he had served since 1970, holding the rank of Wing Commander.

Whenever asked to do so, Little would gladly point his car in the direction of Oldham. Whatever the event, he would lend his support, but understandably the occasions which he enjoyed the most were those which he could share with his colleagues from that glorious era of yesteryear.

Little leaves a wife Valerie, to whom he was married for 63 years, a son Michael and daughters Jane and Sarah.

Rising stars make their debuts

Oldham gave debuts to two new loan players last week against Sheffield Eagles in Wakefield. Luke Hooley (Wakefield) and Ben Morris (St Helens) have both arrived on-loan from their parent Super League clubs until the end of the current season.

Hooley, a full-back, played in his favoured position and took-on the goal kicking duties, landing two out of three attempts. The loss of Richard Lepori and Scott Turner to injury has presented the 19-year-old Dewsbury born player with a great opportunity to advance his career. He's well thought of at Wakefield and recently received praise from his home-town club after a loan-spell playing at The Tetley's Stadium.

Morris took up the left-centre role in the Sheffield game and had plenty to contend with up against a strong and determined Eagles team.

A former Blackbrook junior player, the 20-year-old formed part of the unbeaten St Helens academy side in 2016. His performances earned him a call-up to the full Welsh international team. He made his debut against Italy in a World Cup qualifier, scoring two tries in the process.

Ben Morris

Ben has been named in the Welsh train-on squad for the World Cup alongside our own Joe Burke. He'll be keen to impress whilst at Oldham and will look to augment his international credentials. That can only be good news for the Oldham club during his stay with us.

Kieran Gill and that try!

The visit of Bradford Bulls to Bower Fold today will surely invoke memories of that afternoon back in early April when our friends from West Yorkshire were last here.

Leading 22-20 going into the last 5 minutes, Bradford kicked along the ground to the Oldham left flank on the last tackle. The ball rebounded off Tuoyo Egodo's shins and as he rushed forward to gather the ball his rising posture enabled him to brush-off two Bulls tacklers and race away downhill towards the try line.

On his outside and in support was teammate Kieran Gill who gleefully accepted a pass. Gill initially headed for the corner before checking his run to outstep the Bull's scrambling defence. He then jinked one way and then the other as the Bulls defenders tried in vain to bring him down.

Unbelievably the posts were now the target and the young Castleford Tigers loanee was able to shrug off a series of attempted tackles to place the ball between the sticks.

The Oldham fans were ecstatic. On commentary for Oldham Community Radio, Gerald Brierley and Dave McGealy were producing iconic radio and the video clip of the try was all the rage on social media in the days to follow.

There have been some memorable late tries in the history of Oldham Rugby League and the young three-quarter from Castleford can add his name to the list of treasured Oldham try scorers.

Our Visitors

Bradford Bulls

Bradford Bulls make their second visit of the year to Bower Fold today however they arrive as a club already destined for League One status in 2018.

The Bulls began the 2017 season hampered by the deduction of 12 points before a single ball had been kicked. Financial issues had seen the demise of the previous Bulls administration but the new, reformed club were reprieved from instant relegation and invited to remain in the games second tier.

Hull KR provided the opening day opposition and the Bulls were beaten by the relegated former Super League club 54-24. A home defeat to Rochdale Hornets followed in round two before the first points of the season arrived with a tough away win at Swinton Lions.

More wins against Toulouse, Batley and Dewsbury followed and the men from Odsal were steadfastly chipping away at that twelve point handicap.

A loss in the closing moments at Bower Fold against Roughyeds stymied the Bulls advance to zero points and they'd have to wait until another game against Oldham, this time at Odsal, to remove the minus sign from their points tally.

The Bulls defeated Oldham 47-12 but that remained their last victory of the regular season, finishing bottom of the pile; 11 points short of 11th placed Oldham and 12 points short of levelling with 10th placed Swinton and survival.

Toulouse, who narrowly missed out on a qualifiers place on the last weekend of the season, provided the Championship Shield opening fixture last weekend. Since Oldham (11pts) and Swinton (12pts) have to play each other in the Shield's round 6, 13 points or more was the target for Bradford, effectively seven wins out of seven games.

The Bulls went down at home by 12 points to 26 against the French team and a bottom two place is now a mathematical certainty.

Despite the disappointment of their impossible position, the Bulls are not an outfit to be taken lightly and they can turn out a team strong enough to match any in the Championship Shield. Oldham will have to be on their guard to make it two wins out of two at home to the Bulls in 2017.

Three to watch

Bradford Bulls

James Bentley

19 year-old Leeds born back-rower who's been making a name for himself in the 2017 Bulls team.

Highly rated by coach Geoff Toovey, the player scored four tries against Sheffield Eagles back in April and has bagged a total of 14 four-pointers from 21 appearances this season.

Colton Roche

A utility forward who can play prop, second-row or loose. Roche is a former Leeds Rhinos academy player who left Headingley in 2012 to join Sheffield Eagles. He also played a couple of games for Oldham in the same period.

After time spent with Featherstone Rovers and York City Knights, joined the Bulls in 2017.

Scott Moore

Vastly experienced hooker who has played for a string of Super League clubs such as St Helens, Castleford, Huddersfield, Widnes, Wakefield and London Broncos.

Was youngest ever Super League player when he made his debut for Saints aged only 16.

Roary joins ORSA

The Oldham Roughyeds Supporters Association (ORSA) is appealing for fans to join them in August at the start of their financial year.

ORSA Membership is just £10 per year and every £1 of that contribution goes into their support of the players and coaching staff in one way or another.

As an example, ORSA continues to fund some of the costs of the players' nutrition, fund items of equipment outside the remit of the club's budget, sponsor the end of season Supporters' Player of the Year Awards and only recently, funded a team building opportunity which enabled the squad to take a welcome break away from the rugby environment.

The latest recruit to ORSA's membership is the one and only, Roaarray!! ROARY already takes his LION'S SHARE of helping to take the club forward and is keen to encourage more fans to do the same.

So, if you would like to help too, speak to one of the following ORSA representatives on match day - John McAndrew, Phil Ward, Grant Somerville, Sheila Somerville or Paul Hulbert.
