PASSIONATE ABOUT RUGBY LEAGUE

WELCOME back to the Vestacare Stadium for this rearranged game against Doncaster.

Donny are one of the clubs hoping to be in the mix at the end of the season and with a combination of their own players and those from a strong dual-registration link with Hull FC they have made a good start to the season.

For our part, a week off after the West Wales Raiders game and then a blank weekend was beneficial for both coaches and players and they will have come back this week with renewed energy.

I think people sometimes forget just what a commitment they put in.

HOW CHRIS SEES IT

They have been training since early November so a few days off will have done them the world of good.

The next “rest” won’t be until Wembley weekend at the end of August and that in itself shows what a long season it is for both players and coaches as well as all the relevant back-up staff.

In the interim period my operation was postponed for a second time so to keep myself busy I re-signed Luke Hooley on a season-long loan and brought back Lee Kershaw on another month’s loan . . . initially that is !

Both played well for us in their previous spells and hopefully there will be more of the same to come.

Michael Carter, the Wakefield chairman, has been good to us and we really appreciate his help and also the help and co-operation of Chris Chester.

York last week suffered only their second league defeat up at Whitehaven, which shows not only how tough this competition is but also how good a win ours was up there at the Recreation Ground on the first day of the season when the City Knights lost by two points to Bradford Bulls in their only previous league defeat.

By the time you’re reading this I will hopefully have had my operation and I’d like to thank all those people who have sent good wishes ahead of the op.

Please keep up your great support of the team and fingers crossed for a win today.

Enjoy the game,

this week head coach SCOTT NAYLOR

HELLO everyone and welcome to today's game against Doncaster at the Vestacare Stadium.

The Betfred League 1 division is now starting to take shape after 10 or 11 games and the top-five positions that everyone is expecting are becoming increasingly difficult to hold on to as we've seen in recent weeks with York losing at Whitehaven and Doncaster being beaten by Hunslet just like we were in round three.

It's now looking like eight teams are vying for those five spots so every game from here on in is massively important.

Our opponents today come to us on the back of that loss to Hunslet which makes them a different animal altogether.

I imagine that Richard Horne will have been into his players since that defeat and that the 17 lads picked today will want to put things right for him and their fans.

That makes today's clash a very interesting one.

We are level on points so the win is vital to create a gap and hopefully kick on with our winning run in the league campaign.

On a lighter note it's great to see Richard Horne joining the coaching ranks and I'm sure he will be a huge success.

Let's just hope my old friend Lee Radford hasn't given him too many dual-reg players,

Many thanks,

Zack's back-to-back hat-tricks send him top of our try chart

BUOYED by three tries against Hemel Stags and three more down in Llanelli against West Wales Raiders, centre Zack McComb has taken over the leadership of our 2018 club try chart (see player stats on facing page).

He currently has eight in six appearances - one more than Danny Bridge and two more than Danny Langtree.

People have been wanting to know when an Oldham player last scored try hat-tricks in consecutive games and the answer is winger Nick Johnson in March, 2004 with three in a 40-10 win at Chorley and three more a week later in a 56-12 defeat of Rochdale.

Jon Ford and Adam Hughes scored six tries in consecutive games, but they were four and two, rather than hat-tricks.

The only other player with the 'new' club to boast the distinction of try hat-tricks in successive games was David Gibbons who, in January, 2001, ran in three against amateurs Queensbury and four against Chorley Lynx in the following game.

Danny Bridge did his chances of finishing top no harm at all with a brace of tries against Hemel and another one in our 74-0 win at West Wales Raiders. With seven, he pushed his second-row partner Danny Langtree down into third place and became, currently, our top try-scoring forward.

He blotted his copybook when sin-binned in Llanelli for use of knees in a tackle, but the RFL's match review panel later ruled that the yellow card was sufficient punishment.

AGAINST ALL THE ODDS

Oldham Rugby League Club 1997 to 2017

Available at the Oldham Website
roughyeds.co.uk

DEBBIE Abrahams, MP for Oldham East and Saddleworth, has helped the club to mark its 20th anniversary by writing an introductory article in a new book titled, 'Roughyeds - Against All The Odds', that chronicles the club's history.

Debbie, who attended a special gala dinner held at the Queen Elizabeth Hall, Oldham in November, said: "It was such a pleasure to rub shoulders with many great people who've been part of the Roughyeds' story over the last 20 years.

"The atmosphere at the dinner was amazing and it was so much fun listening to the many stories being shared between supporters past and present, who all share a common bond; an absolute love of rugby league.

"As I said in the book, Rugby League is interwoven into Oldham life and adds to our rich history. It is a part of our community and I very much look forward to the next 20 years and beyond."

Club chairman Chris Hamilton said: "This latest book by Craig Halstead is another cracker. The title underlines the obstacles the club has had to overcome just to exist. And the tales, reminiscences and memories of so many people who have been directly involved with the club will bring our adventure against all the odds back to life for all Oldham RLFC fans.

"It's a great read and a must for Roughyeds fans young and old."

A fascinating insight into the launch of the 'new' club, and its early days, is provided by former director Sean Whitehead, who also has some revealing things to say about Chris, who has had an official and unbroken connection with the club from day one and is still its chairman and owner.

The book's author, Craig Halstead, said: "It was with great pleasure that I accepted an invitation by Chris Hamilton to tell the story of the club's fortunes over the last 20 years. I thoroughly enjoyed talking, among others, to past and present Oldham players who have worn the jersey with pride and passion.

"Through them, I have attempted to give an insight into what the club has achieved and what it has had to overcome since it was launched in 1997. My thanks to everyone who has contributed and best wishes to the club for the next 20 years. Happy reading. Hope you enjoy the memories!"

'Roughyeds -- Against All The Odds' costs £12.95 and can be purchased at the club (tel: 07904 898177) or on match days or on line via the club website at www.roughyeds.co.uk

Q. Can you remember your first Roughyeds game?

A. I can't remember first game; I was 3 months old and in my pram!. It was Batley away. The first game I remember watching was Newcastle away.

Q. What's your most memorable Oldham game.

A. Beating Keighley to gain promotion in 2015 at Whitebank Stadium.

Q. Do any other members of your family come to games?

A. I go to games with my grandad, my mum, my cousin Travis and my younger brother Tom. Sometimes my dad watches too.

Q. Do you have a favourite player?

A. My favourite players are Danny Langtree and Kieran Gill. I also like George Tyson and Sammy Gee even though they've left the club now.

Q. Do you play rugby league?

A. I play for St Anne's Rugby League U11s. I scored my first try last week at the AJ Bell Stadium in a tournament.

Q. Do you think Oldham will be promoted at the end of this season?

A. Hopefully!

Q. Any other thoughts on rugby league in the area?

A. Rochdale will definitely get relegated.

When we played in Rugby League's very own 'White Horse Final' . . .

GEORGE COWBURN continues his series in which he looks at Oldham's contribution to big events in RL history

In the 1920s Oldham were Cup Kings, appearing in four successive Challenge Cup finals, a record held until Wigan smashed it with their eight appearances in a row from 1988 to 1995, all won.

In this article we are looking at the first two finals, in 1924 when Wigan were victorious 21-4 and in 1925 when Oldham defeated Hull KR 16-3.

The 1924 final was the equivalent of football's 'White Horse Final'.

Oldham got there with wins over local rivals Rochdale Hornets (5-0), Dewsbury (18-0), Wakefield Trinity (24-10) and then a 9-5 semi-final victory over Huddersfield.

For the all-Lancashire final on April 12 the venue chosen was Rochdale's Athletic Grounds and a record crowd of 41,831 crammed into the stadium, resulting in record receipts of £3,712.

So great was the crush that the crowd spilled on to the pitch and the referee, the Rev Frank Chambers from Dewsbury, had to withdraw the teams so police could restore order and allow the game to take place.

Oldham's team that day:

Ernie Knapman, Sid Rix, Billy Hall, Alan Woodward, Joe Corsi, George Hesketh, Alf Bates, Jack Collins, Alf Tomkins, Ambrose Baker, Bob Sloman, Albert Brough, Herman Hilton.

A goal apiece by Knapman and Brough against two Wigan tries and a goal meant Roughyeds were still in the game at half time, but three second-half tries and two goals, without reply, gave Wigan a comfortable 21-4 victory.

Stories abound regarding the chaos at the match.

Wigan's Tom Parker was said to have dived at the feet of the crowd for his try and South African winger Attie

The 1924 cup final crowd spilling over on to the pitch

Van Heerden reportedly ran round the back of a mounted policeman to get behind the posts for his touchdown. Winger Johnny Ring supposedly dived under the legs of a police horse for his score.

The disappointing result and the chaos did not put Oldham off though. They were back in the final again the next year.

In the 1924-25 season Oldham had already shown their cup-winning credentials with a 10-0 victory over St Helens Recreation in the Lancashire Cup Final.

St Helens Recs was a different club to the existing St Helens club. The Recs left the league after the 1938-9 season and their successors now

Reg Farrar . . . still our tries-in-a-season record holder to this day

The Oldham team that won the Challenge Cup in 1925

are the famous community club Pilkington Recs.

Victories over Leigh (5-0), Warrington (12-2) and Featherstone Rovers (26-0) saw Oldham playing a semi-final against their nearest and dearest, Rochdale Hornets, at Central Park, Wigan.

A 9-0 win over their neighbours took Oldham to Headingley on April 25, 1925 for a showdown against Hull KR, who had finished second in the league to Oldham's fifth. Rovers also beat Swinton in the Championship final.

Playing before a crowd of 28,335 with receipts of £2,879 Oldham lined up like this: Ernie Knapman, Joe Corsi, Sid Rix, Evan Davies, Reg Farrar, Ben Benyon, George Hesketh, Jack Collins, Alf Tomkins, Rothwell 'Rod' Marlor, Bob Sloman, Albert Brough, Herman Hilton (capt).

Oldham dominated the first half but had to wait until the 33rd minute for their first score. Farrar covered over 50 yards in scoring the opening try which he also converted from the touchline.

Leading 5-0 at half time, Oldham steadily increased their lead with second-half tries by Brough and Corsi, plus a Farrar penalty.

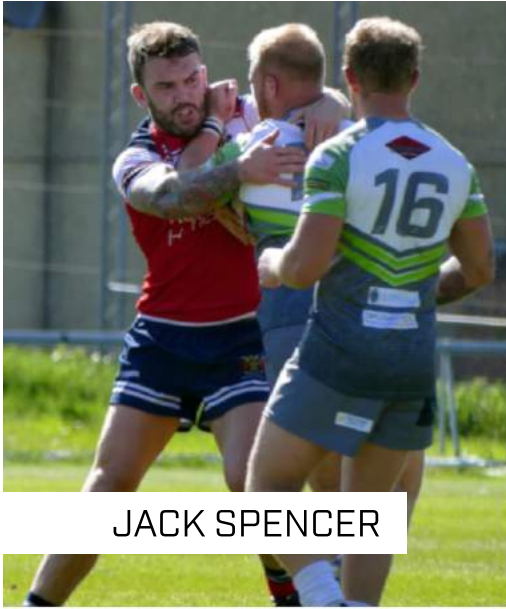

Wilkinson then scored an unconverted try for Hull KR following a kick through before Oldham's veteran Welsh centre Davies wrapped things up with the final try, following good work by Farrar and Brough.

Farrar, who is still Oldham's record try scorer in a season (49 in 1921-22) was the star of the show with one try, two assists and two goals.

Squad given a boost with new

Lee Kershaw

WE are delighted to confirm the completion of two new loan agreements with Wakefield Trinity involving up-and-coming 19-year-olds Luke Hooley and Lee Kershaw.

It was the last major job completed by our club chairman Chris Hamilton before he went into hospital for major heart surgery.

Full-back Hooley's latest week-to-week deal has been replaced with a season-long arrangement in which Trinity can trigger a recall option after the first month.

Winger Kershaw is back on a one-month deal, similar to that in which he scored three tries in four games for us between April 15 and May 6.

When that month was up, he went back to his full-time Betfred Super League employers, but Scott Naylor said at the time: "I'd be surprised if we didn't see him playing for Oldham again."

Roughyeds wish to place on record their appreciation of Wakefield's assistance and especially the help given by chairman Michel Carter and head coach Chris Chester.

Scott said: "This is brilliant news. We've always found that Wakefield Trinity is a great club to work with.

"Luke (Hooley) has always been fantastic with us. He's a great lad. To have him training with Trinity during the day and playing for us at weekends is good for him, for Trinity and for us. It's a great deal for all concerned.

"It's only a matter of time before he's playing first-team for Wakefield, but in the meantime he can give us a lift and we can help him to make progress with game time at a senior level.

"As for Lee (Kershaw), he played extremely well the last time he was with us. He's very young, but he's learning the game at a fast rate and, like Luke, he's also a good lad.

"He's one for the future at Wakefield. He needs game time and we know what he is # loan deals for Trinity teenagers

capable of. We obviously wanted to get him back and it's great to know it's happened."

Hooley first came to Oldham's attention last year when he played in six of Roughyeds' seven Championship Shield games while on loan, kicking 18 goals from 21 shots and scoring a match-winning try at Rochdale after following David Hewitt and taking the scrum-half's final pass.

He was twice named Oldham's top performer by League Express, in a 22-22 draw at Batley Bulldogs and in a 24-18 defeat by Toulouse Olympique at Bower Fold.

This season, both he and winger Kershaw (then aged 18, now 19), came on a month's loan following the home defeat by Hunslet on April 8.

They both played in four games -- wins against Keighley Cougars (32-18) and Newcastle Thunder (28-12) at the Vestacare Stadium; a 32-0 home defeat by Hull KR in the Ladbrokes Challenge Cup; and a very impressive 32-10 win at Workington.

In that game, Hooley scored a brilliant solo try just after half-time to take Roughyeds into a 20-6 lead.

Kershaw played left wing in all four games, scoring twice against Keighley on his first-ever appearance at senior level and adding another in the win up at Derwent Park.

He has been at Trinity since he was 15 after representing West Yorkshire at age-group rugby union and then switching to League, first with Keighley Albion and later with Eastmoor Dragons, a community club with which Trinity have close associations.

When this season's initial month at Oldham expired for both players, Kershaw returned to Trinity temporarily, while Hooley remained at Oldham on a week-to-week basis although he didn't play against Hemel Stags and West Wales Raiders.

Doncaster

Doncaster are currently sitting in fourth position in Betfred League 1, just one place below Oldham who hold a narrow points-difference advantage.

The two sides have each won seven and lost three games so far this season but the similarities in results doesn't end at the bare figures alone. Those three losing games for the men from the Keepmoat Stadium were against York (H 14-16), Hunslet (H 16-35) and Bradford (H 6-32); the same teams that have lowered Oldham's colours in the league this year.

Last season Doncaster finished in fifth place in League 1's regular season, taking their place in the division's Super 8s competition. Hopes of finishing in the top five and a play-off place were dashed as the South Yorkshire side managed only one win out of seven and finished in 6th place.

Doncaster coach Richard Horne began a squad rebuild in preparation for 2018. Former Castleford and Wakefield full-back Richard Owen was recruited and he was joined by former teammate Ryan Boyle, a prop-forward with almost 150 Super League games under his belt with Castleford and Salford.

Only last month Doncaster moved to further bolster their squad with the signing of Scotland international Frankie Mariano. Coach Horne was delighted to beat-off the attention of Championship clubs to seal the arrival of the ex Wakefield and Castleford player who adds more size and strength to the Dons' pack.

Doncaster began their 2018 campaign with a thumping 70-10 at home to Coventry Bears. Whitehaven were despatched next with another home win before a narrow two points victory away at Newcastle. Those wins enabled the Dons to stake a claim at the head of the league table despite those reversals against York and Bradford.

On the same weekend that Oldham were running up the points against West Wales down in Llanelli, Doncaster entertained Hunslet at home. The Leeds side led 14-10 at the break but restricted their hosts to only six points in the second half while they went on to amass 35 points and take the win.

The two results meant that Doncaster dropped out of the top three for the first time in the year. Scrum-half Liam Harris had departed for Hull FC in the week before the game and that disruption, coupled with a below par performance, contributed to the loss.

Today's encounter with Oldham is the first game in a tough month for Doncaster. They take on Keighley at home next week but then travel away to both Whitehaven and Bradford as the season midway point is reached. It's likely they'll be missing the services of dual-registered back Hakim Miloudi who will be required by his parent club Hull FC.

Writing in the Doncaster Free Press, Richard Horne described Oldham as "a big powerful team, similar to Hunslet. They play it tough and they are direct and we'll have to handle that".

This clash of third v fourth should be a cracker and allow each side to assess how they are progressing in the season as a whole.

Three to watch

Doncaster

Jason Tali

30 year-old centre from Papua New Guinea who joined the Dons from Newcastle Thunder ahead of the 2016 campaign. Won international honours with PNG at the 2013 Rugby League World Cup. Re-signed a two-year deal to keep him with Doncaster until the end of this current season despite attention from Super League clubs.

Richard Owen

Very experienced full-back who began his professional career with Castleford Tigers in 2007. Scored 59 tries in 121 games for the Wheldon Road outfit before moving on to Wakefield Trinity Wildcats in 2014. Owen played 45 games for Wakefield until released from his contract in 2016. Joined Doncaster at the start of 2018.

Ryan Boyle

Prop-forward who, like his teammate Owen, started off at Castleford Tigers, signing in 2006. Left for Salford City Reds in 2010 before returning to Cas in 2013. Boyle moved on to Halifax in the Championship in 2016, initially on loan but signed full-time for the 2017 season. Signed for Doncaster at the start of this season and has a big role to play in motivating the team.

+ LONDON SKOLARS, who will be here in a fortnight, will be without dual-reg forward Rob Butler, who is serving a three-match ban for a dangerous lift in the defeat by Bradford Bulls. The London Broncos prop (20) pleaded guilty.

+ COVENTRY BEARS, our opponents next Sunday when we visit Butts Park Arena in the West Midlands for the first time, had five players on duty for England Universities in their recent 42-4 win against New Zealand. Jason Bass, James Mason, Ben Gray, Ben Stead and Harry Chapman are likely to be available for the Bears next week.

+ WORKINGTON TOWN, who come to the Vestacare Stadium on Sunday, July 1, have landed former NRL star Kyle Lovett on a month's loan from Leigh Centurions. Lovett (25), once of Wests Tigers, made his Town debut in last Sunday's home win against Newcastle Thunder.

+ NEWCASTLE also had a big-name debutant in former French international scrum-half Remy Marginet, who played off the bench. The 29-year-old former Catalans Dragons scrum-half, has also played for Featherstone and Sheffield. More recently, he has been playing for French side Palau.

+ YORK CITY KNIGHTS, who suffered only their second league defeat of the season at Whitehaven last week, have no game this weekend, thus giving Oldham an opportunity to get within two points of them if Scott's boys can turn over Donny. Knights believe their dual-registered half-back Matty Marsh will soon be pushing for a spot in Hull KR's line-up.
