

WEDNESDAY, 17th APRIL, 1957

(Lancashire Rugby League Combination)

WIGAN 'A'
v.
OLDHAM 'A'

Kick-off 6-30 p.m.

After a long lay-off since the 23rd March, our "A" team return to action to-night for the first of three home matches to end the season. This match should have been played on Saturday, 30th March, but the Challenge Cup Semi-final intervened and a new date had to be found.

We hope that David Bolton will return to the game this evening after his serious injury in the Cup-tie at Leeds, and if he does play in this game we do wish him lots of luck and no more injuries, serious or otherwise. There will also be two trialist forwards on view, and altogether it is possible the team may bear an unusual look. Oldham "A" are a fine footballing side and we anticipate a keen game.
