CLUB NOTES

AFTER a one-month interval, during which "Competition" games have been played, it is perhaps something of a relief to get back to the league programme today.

It was, of course, a pleasure to meet the Australian touring side and also to qualify for the final of a new competition, the Captain Morgan Trophy; but these matches have certainly put the brakes on our progress up the league table, and one hopes that the consequent fixture pile-up will not cause undue hardship on our playing resources — and that our unpredictable weather will not add further complications.

At this point I should perhaps point out that our home game with Wakefield, scheduled for tomorrow, will now be played on New Year's Day with a kick-off time yet to be arranged. I would also advise you that the kick-off time for our home match v. St. Helens next week has been brought forward to 2.15 p.m. The Final of the Captain Morgan Trophy between Warrington and ourselves is scheduled for the weekend of 26th January 1974, but the venue has not yet been fixed by the Rugby League.

On the injury front — Jimmy Thompson and Vince Farrar are recovering from operations performed by a Durham specialist; Mick Smith and Colin Smith are back in full training after operations on knee and arm respectively and should be back in action after Christmas. Steve Nash will probably know during next week the extent of his particular indisposition.

THE JOHN PLAYER RUGBY LEAGUE YEAR BOOK

Supporters who have already placed orders for these books may now collect them from the Secretary's Office or Supporters' Office. A few extra copies have been received and will be on sale in the Secretary's Office today. At £1.50 each the price is very reasonable for a work of this nature, and they will make an excellent Christmas present.

SPOTLIGHT ON TODAY'S REFEREE — MR. K. L. GASKELL

Age 40. Weight 12st. 8lb. He played at centre and loose-forward in Junior Rugby League before switching to refereeing. Married, with three children. Occupation: Sales manager with a Textile Manufacturing Company. Hobbies: Swimming and a weekly round of golf.

Player's No 6 Trophy

The outstanding feature of every season

With over £16,000 in prize money to play for it's no wonder that the Player's No 6 Trophy is a success with the players. And the effort and skill they put into capturing the Trophy has made sure that this 5 round, 32 club knockout series is a hit with the spectators too.

The Player's No 6 Trophy really is Rugby League's richest prize — in every sense.

HAROLD BOX (AND OTHERS)

HAROLD BOX has now scored more than 500 points for the Rovers, and although it may be early days to be thinking about his beating Cyril Kellett's or Don Fox's career totals, he is now moving up the top-ten lists.

The up-to-date position is:

Goals	Points	Goals	Points
Cyril Kellett	541	Don Fox	1492
Don Fox	503	Jim Denton	1141
Terry Clawson	487	Cyril Kellett	1105
Jack Fennell	455	Terry Clawson	1091
Jim Denton	377	Jack Fennell	1000
Tommy Smales	269	Tommy Smales	610
Harold Box	246	Bill Sherwood	571
Freddy Miller	245	Harold Box	513
Bill Sherwood	236	Freddy Miller	496
Jimmy Williams	120	Jack Hirst	351

There is obviously every chance of further moves up the list before the end of the season. There are at least another 24 games for the Rovers this season, and it could be as many as 30 given good runs in the R.L. Cup and the Club Championship; so an average of just over 3 goals a game would give Harold Box the goals-in-a-season record.

Keith Bridges has just celebrated his 100th appearance for the Rovers. Incidentally, why is it "J. H." in the Appearances and Points Scorers list and "Keith" on the teams page? Is it for the same reason as Richard "Charlie" Stone?

Four more players should complete the first hundred appearances of their career before the season is out; namely, Paul Coventry (95), Richard Stone (93), Mel Mason (89) and Harold Box (86).

Two players stuck just short of centuries are Jimmy Thompson, stuck on 189 appearances, and Mick Smith, who only needs two tries to become the seventh Rovers player to score 100. Both Dave Hartley and John Newlove are now hard on his heels.

Twenty-two points last Sunday for David Watkins means that he is now almost half-way to his objective of scoring 500 points this season. His total is now 219, made up of 11 tries and 93 goals — which means that he is very close to achieving the "Saxton double."

OUR VISITORS

FOR our fourth home game on the trot, albeit in different competitions, it is our pleasure to welcome the Officials, Players and Supporters of the Oldham Club.

Because of previous fixture arrangements, the paths of our two Clubs have not crossed very often, and in consequence some of their players are not particularly well known to us. Over the past year or two they have looked increasingly to Yorkshire for players. They have secured Mick McCone (a native of Pontefract and formerly with Doncaster), ex-Rover Terry Clawson and Tony Wainwright from Leeds. Recently, ex-Rovers Junior David Treasure joined their ranks from Bradford Northern, and they have also captured Castleford Junior Steve Lund seconds after he became seventeen years of age.

In our recent match at Watersheddings, full-back Martin Murphy, centre Phil Larder, hooker Kevin Taylor and second-row-man Fred Hall took the eye, and Terry Clawson had his usual good game against us. The excitement was tremendous from start to finish, and if today's game is in the same mould, no-one will have cause for complaint.
